

FBI Assassination Findings in Hands Of Justice Bureau

Warren Commission to Ask Congress for Subpoena Powers

WASHINGTON (AP) — There were strong indications today that the FBI has completed its bulky report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy without closing its wide-ranging investigation.

It was learned—although official spokesmen steadfastly refused comment—that the report has been turned over to the Justice Department and Deputy Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach. The department will forward it to President Johnson shortly.

The President in turn is expected to transmit the report to the review commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Commission in Session

The Warren commission meets this afternoon. Whether it was to receive the report then was not known in advance.

The FBI is understood to have concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, ex-Marine and Marxist, planned and executed alone the Nov. 22 slaying in Dallas.

Warren has given his implicit assurance that the bipartisan body will reach beyond the official findings, if need be, to clear up any questions that the FBI and six cooperating agencies have not answered to the commission's satisfaction.

Warren announced Thursday, after a 2½-hour commission meeting that Congress will be asked to arm the group with subpoena power. Congress is sure to respond quickly; legislation already is being drafted.

Machinery was in motion also to equip the commission with staff aides, offices and operating procedures.

Extensive Powers

The Warren group has full authority, under Johnson's executive order of last Friday, which created it, to go beyond a mere evaluation of the FBI and other findings. The order empowers it to "conduct any further investigation it deems desirable."

Whether hearings will be held was not decided. Warren told reporters that none of the procedural questions had been settled finally.

Still to be resolved also was the question whether the White House will make public the FBI report before or after the commission studies and evaluates it.

Johnson promised that the findings would be made public in full, but did not say when, and White House press officers have been vague on the question.

Warren told newsmen after Thursday's meeting that the commission still was working somewhat in the dark in approaching what he called its "very sad and very solemn duty" because it had not received the FBI or any other government report.

New Issue in Supreme Court On Appointees

Tribunal Asked if 2 Officials Hold Positions Legally

MADISON (AP) — The appointment clash between Republicans in the State Senate and Democratic Gov. John W. Reynolds turned to a new issue Thursday when the State Supreme Court was asked to decide whether two state officials are entitled to the jobs they hold.

The court, which has been asked to referee the dispute, received the request in a stipulation filed by Atty. Gen. George Thompson and Leonard F. Schmitt of Merrill, special counsel in the case for Reynolds.

Checks Held Up

There was some question whether the court would act on the stipulation because the case already had been argued, and after a 2½-hour commission meeting that Congress will be asked to arm the group with subpoena power. Congress is sure to respond quickly; legislation already is being drafted.

Machinery was in motion also to equip the commission with staff aides, offices and operating procedures.

Tax Cut Passage Seen But Civil Rights Stalled

No Sign of Big Speedup In Congress

BY JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—It has been nine days since President Johnson appeared before Congress to urge the quickest possible action on civil rights and tax cut bills as a tribute to the late President Kennedy.

He followed that appeal with a wide-ranging series of conferences, statements and telephone calls, all part of the technique he made famous in six years as Senate majority leader.

Has the result been to improve prospects for the two bills or to advance the time when final passage may be expected?

The answer appears to be that there is not much change, certainly not the dramatic improvement looked for by some avid supporters of the measures.

Civil Rights Fight

The timetable for Senate Finance Committee action on the $11 billion tax cut has been speeded up slightly. But the House Rules Committee still plans no sessions on civil rights until next month.

Before Kennedy's assassination, Democratic congressional leaders were strongly confident both bills eventually would become law, the tax bill without too much trouble but civil rights only after a bitter fight. They say the outlook is about the same now.

Highest Civil Honor Award To Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson awarded posthumously to John F. Kennedy today the nation's highest civil honor, "on behalf of the great republic for which he lived and died."

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy accepted the Medal of Freedom for his slain brother. The assassinated President conceived the award and was to have presented it today to 31 leaders of government, science, business and the arts.

Mrs. Kennedy Watches Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, widow of the President, watched the ceremony from a small dining room off the White House state dining room. A folding screen shielded her from view of those at the award ceremony. Her presence was not announced until after it was over.

Standing before a fireplace draped in black in mourning for the President who was slain in Dallas two weeks ago today, Johnson read this citation:

"John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States, soldier, scholar, statesman, defender of freedom, pioneer for peace, author of hope—combining courage with reason, and combating hate with compassion, he led the land he loved toward new frontiers of opportunity for all men and peace for all time."

"Beloved in a life of selfless service, mourned by all in a death of senseless crime, the energy, faith and devotion which he brought to his extraordinarily successful though tragically brief endeavors will hereafter light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world."

The final words of the citation were from Kennedy's inaugural address.

Johnson and Advisers Also Discuss Alliance Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson met with top diplomatic and military advisers today to discuss the defense budget and problems facing the Atlantic Alliance.

The hour-long meeting was disclosed by Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, after it had ended.

Salinger said Johnson emphasized a determination to maintain the military strength of the nation, and at the same time, get a dollar's value for a dollar spent in the military.

Paris, Peking Discuss Trade

France Not Planning Recognition, French Spokesman Asserts

PARIS (AP) — A gradual change in France's aloofness toward Red China is taking shape. It appears to be developing in the trade area.

"France definitely does not plan diplomatic recognition of Red China in the foreseeable future," one source said. "Trade considerations may undergo a loosening of what has been a generally restricted attitude."

Two Chinese missions, one trade, the other technical, are in France. One has eight specialists in the field of measuring instruments and of automation. The other includes seven petroleum specialists.

What might be regarded as a tentative step in Red China's direction is a projected trade agreement with Albania. Albania, along with North Korea, is Red China's staunch ally in the dispute between the Soviet Union and Red China.

Voters Hand Britain's Prime Minister Blows To Political Prestige

BY COLIN FROST
LONDON (AP)—Three more electoral setbacks dimmed Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home's political prestige today, dousing rumors that he might risk a spring general election.

Balloting to fill House of Commons vacancies in London, Manchester and Sudbury all showed a slump in Conservative support sharp enough to give the opposition Labor party a landslide victory in any national poll held anytime soon.

In the London and Manchester districts, the Conservative share of the vote was down 10 per cent compared with the 1959 general election. In Sudbury it dropped 4 per cent.

However, the Conservatives retained the seats in London's St. Marylebone district and Sudbury. The Laborites kept the seat in Manchester's Openshaw district.

Jury Weighing Murder Charged To Thompson

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—A jury deliberating the testimony of 104 witnesses, plus 120 exhibits, goes back into a locked room today to weigh the first-degree murder charge against T. Eugene Thompson.

The six men and six women met five hours Thursday night, retiring to a hotel just before 10 p.m.

Thompson, 36, a St. Paul attorney, is accused of masterminding the slaying of his wife last March 6.

Carol Thompson, 34, mother of four children, was beaten and stabbed at the family's fashionable home shortly after her husband had left for work and the children had gone to school.

The prosecution contended the motives were Thompson's love for his former secretary, Jacqueline Olesen, and the $1,055,000 in insurance he bought on his wife in 13 months preceding the slaying.

If convicted, Thompson could be reduced to 17 years with time off for good behavior and a parole. Minnesota does not have the death penalty.

Dist. Judge Rolf Fosseen gave the jury the choice of only two verdicts—guilty or innocent of first-degree murder.

Today in History

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Friday, Dec. 6, the 340th day of 1963. There are 25 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1643, Capt. Thomas Pride arrested or excluded all Presbyterian and Royalist members of the British House of Commons prior to the trial of King Charles I. The act is known as "Pride's Purge" and the remaining members were called the "Rump Parliament."

On this date: In 1492, Christopher Columbus discovered Haiti and named it Hispaniola.

In 1938, Germany and France signed a non-aggression pact under which Germany pledged to pursue a peaceful, neighborly policy toward France.

In 1955, the United States, Britain, France and Russia formally recognized the perpetual neutrality of Austria.

Ten years ago — Vicksburg, Miss., counted 26 dead and 230 injured in a tornado — one of four such storms that also ripped across Arkansas and Louisiana.

Democrats in Louisiana at Primary Polls

Nominate Their Choice for Governor; Runoff May Result

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Louisiana Democrats nominate a candidate for governor Saturday in a primary complicated by the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The primary is the first state election since the slaying of Kennedy, who was a symbol of civil rights and liberal politics in Louisiana.

The state had been rife with "hate Kennedy" agitation for months.

Ten candidates seek the nomination—which has meant automatic election in Louisiana since Reconstruction days.

If none gets more than 50 per cent of the vote, the two leaders go into a runoff Jan. 11.

Issue Removed

The winner meets Republican Chariton H. Lyon of Shreveport in the March 3 general election.

Gov. Jimmie H. Davis was prevented by law from seeking a second consecutive term.

The slaying of Kennedy removed the "cuss the Kennedys" strategy and muted the issue of racial segregation.

Since the assassination, candidates have spoken of such unemotional issues as improving education, polishing the state's image and setting up a code of ethics.

The candidate expected to benefit most is DeLesseps S. Morrison, 51, former New Orleans mayor. He resigned as wasn't a hater.

More White Collar Workers Job Pattern Shifts Cut Unions' Rolls

BY NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department has put its finger on a sore spot in the nation's labor movement — union membership losses.

And it blames the losses largely on a shift in the nation's job pattern toward more white collar workers, many of whom "have not recognized a need to be represented by unions."

Affluates of the AFL-CIO, the giant of the labor world with more than 14 million members in this country and Canada, lost 222,000 members from 1960 to 1962, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported. There were no specific figures available for 1963, but the declining trend almost certainly continued this year.

Reasons for Decline
"The drop in membership has been due to declining employment caused by structural shifts in the economy and lagging demand for the products of industry, rather than worker dissatisfaction with the labor movement," the bureau said.

But, it added, "There is as yet no evidence of a resurgence of organizing spirit comparable to that in the late 1930s and the early 1940s."

The membership loss figures are based on the bureau's own survey and reported in monthly labor review.

Many unions are reluctant to talk about membership losses. "Government figures on union membership over the years have been somewhat out of kilter," an AFL-CIO spokesman commented.

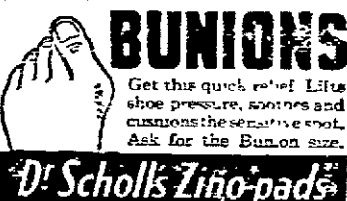

The federation said its own figures show a two-year loss of 74,000 for a more recent two-year period ending last August and that the trend since then continued roughly the same.

While the bureau saw no new major surge of union organizing the AFL-CIO is trying to get one off the ground. It is in the pilot stage at the moment.

Labor's future organizing success depends greatly on how well it can persuade white collar workers to join unions.

The changing occupational and industrial pattern is unfavorable to employment in the older industries in which unions have their most substantial foothold," the bureau said.

As technology, competition of products and services, changing consumer demands, and rising labor productivity take their toll of employment, unions in older economic areas necessarily decline in size.

D's Scholl's Zito-pads

Here's why you'll tell other people you like it.

Some people think it's a bit frivolous to like a car just because it looks so nice. So what you'll have to do is bone up a little on all the other things that make a Pontiac a Pontiac.

Wide-Track, for instance. Wide-Track is what does away with tilting your way around turns. Pontiac's smoother, quieter ride is another thing you might point out.

Be careful, though. One ride in this car and everybody's going to think you're made of money. You can solve that problem by telling what you paid.

Or you might just say, "You'd sure think this car cost a lot, wouldn't you?"

Or you could take everybody's mind off it entirely by giving your Pontiac some throttle. A big 389-cubic-inch Trophy V-8 is standard in each and every Pontiac. And you get to choose from 34 engine/transmission teams. (Happy choosing!)

Now then—on to more of the things that make the '64 Pontiac so thoroughly likeable. Frankly, we couldn't think of anything radical to do with this car. Oh, we made the styling even more stylish, as you can plainly see. We lavished even more care on the interiors. We even improved the light bulbs. But as for more vital things, why change? Improve, refine, sharpen—yes. Change—no. And you can tell that to your friends.

Really, though, you can buy a Pontiac solely because you like its looks. We don't think you'll find many people who'll ask you for more practical reasons.

What they'll be asking for is a ride—and the name of the man you bought your '64 Pontiac from.

Out of Newspaper Color Ad Series For 18 Local FLORISTS

A series of two-color advertisements published once each month since February of this year in the Sunday Post-Crescent has received national attention. The institutional-type advertisements have been published by area florists and utilized such universally-celebrated occasions as National Flower Week, Easter Sunday, Memorial Day, Mother's Day, June Bridal Month and Thanksgiving as inspirational themes. They were exhibited by Harold Aykens of Appleton on behalf of the participating local florists, at the annual All-Industry Floricultural Congress in Chicago. Harold is a member of the Florists Telegraph Delivery Publications Committee.

Following the meeting, at which the ad series inspired enthusiastic approval and commendation from nation-wide representatives of the organization including high-ranking officers, a suggestion to send the exhibit to various other interested florist associations was approved and the series has become a traveling display. The Post-Crescent . . . is justifiably proud of the part its art, composing and sale staff played in the production of this color advertising for our area florists.

From:—
St. Joseph News-Press

Move Started to Name High School John F. Kennedy

Mayor Mitchell Adds Support To Effort by Several Citizens

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

A move is underway in Appleton to name the proposed new senior high school in memory of former President John F. Kennedy, it was learned today.

Although the politics of the community are predominantly Republican, there appears to be bipartisan support building up to name the school after the assassinated president.

Supt. of Schools Royce Kurtz said today to his knowledge the board of education had received one letter on the matter and it would be brought up and discussed at next week's meeting.

Six Months

It is expected a name for the proposed school on the city's far southeast side will be selected within the next six months if past procedures are followed by school commissioners.

Mrs. George Munro, board president, said she was aware of one communication being received but thought consideration of a name for the proposed $4 million structure was premature at this time.

In keeping with policy, Mrs. Munro said, all letters would be read at open board meetings.

Asked if he was aware of any spontaneous move in the city to name the school after the late Mr. Kennedy, Mayor Clarence Mitchell said he, too, was writing a letter to the Appleton Board of Education.

Mayor's Letter

"I am hereby requesting that consideration be given to naming the new senior high school to be built in the southeast section of the city, The John Fitzgerald Kennedy High School in memory of our late president," Mitchell wrote the board.

Mitchell, a Republican, said politics should have no place in the discussion on naming the new school.

However, a few Republicans contacted by the writer appeared cool toward the suggestion that the school building be named after the 35th president.

Location of the proposed new school is on the city's far southeast side.

Home-School Drive Planned

Kaukauna Group Sets 100 Per Cent Membership Goal

KAUKAUNA — Plans for a Holy Cross Home-School Association membership drive with a 100 per cent parental membership goal were outlined Tuesday.

Mrs. Donald Tomazovic will be membership chairman. School youngsters will be asked to urge parents to join. Cash awards will go to the school rooms having the largest percentage of parents enrolled. The drive ends Jan. 20.

Mrs. Arthur Oettinger, third-grade teacher, explained the modern math program on that level, saying the major emphasis is on teaching mathematical methods of problem solving and finding solutions by computation, showing the nature of a problem situation and what the child learns. Mrs. Oettinger and Mrs. Edward Wulgaert, another third-grade teacher, then showed examples of problem solving.

Encyclopedia Sales
Sister Jeanne d'Arc, principal, informed members an encyclopedia firm would present home-owners with a certificate if permitted to have a representative demonstrate books. These certificates would be redeemable by the school toward the purchase of a set of encyclopedias.

Mrs. Gene LaBorde, book fair chairman, said the Home-School sponsored fair resulted in several books being purchased for the school library. Books also were purchased with donations from individuals for the library.

Entertainment was provided by the Kaukauna-Little Chute SPEBSQSA chorus under the direction of Keith Eifler.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Appleton by Mrs. Joseph Krings, Mrs. Victor Peters, Mrs. James Gustman, Mrs. Joseph Frank, Mrs. Karl Minkebig, Mrs. Harold Rosin, Mrs. Norbert Driesen, Mrs. Frank Merckx and Mrs. Eugene Regenuss.

Packages Underweight

20 Per Cent of Those Checked in Appleton Are Faulty

More than 20 per cent of the products checked for weight and package markings were ordered off the shelves of some Appleton stores during November for not meeting legal requirements.

A report on the unusually high number of cases has been made to the common council by City Sealer of Weights and Measures Roger LaBerge.

LaBerge said he made 1,735 tests, found 112 items short-weight and rejected more than 300 others for various reasons. In several instances, LaBerge ordered foodstuffs repacked.

LaBerge says some bakeries have been frequent violators of the rule that each loaf of bread weigh a minimum of one pound. Of 90 tests made, LaBerge found 40 loaves underweight.

He disclosed that at some stores, the weight and price of the products was not listed on the package as prescribed by law.

Seminary Choristers to Perform

Xavier High Christmas Activities Enhanced by Vacation Extension

Christmas preparations are a reason for the extension of the main concern at Xavier during these weeks.

The early spirit of goodwill that with Saturday classes, Xavier will have a surplus of class days over the number required by the state.

The annual school Christmas assembly will be held this year in the auditorium from 3 to 4 p.m. Dec. 20. Featured in the program will be the Fox River Choristers from St. Francis Major Seminary of Milwaukee. Both educators gave as the

This group will present a variety of program of sacred and whimsical music, interspersed with humorous skits.

The Xavier wind ensemble, concert band and mixed chorus will present their annual Christmas program at 8 p.m. Dec. 21. Modern and traditional Christmas music will be featured. Francis Scholtz will conduct the instrumental music and Austin Boncher the choral portions.

High School Showcase
WFRV-TV, Channel 5, will feature Xavier High School at 11:30 a.m. Dec. 22 on its High School Showcase program. The wind ensemble and mixed chorus will perform on the program. A feature of the program will be a group of modern dancers depicting the Biblical account of the Nativity. Xavier physical education teacher, Miss Helen Koonz, will be the choreographer. Miss Kathryn Martin will be in charge of the script and commentators of the program. Scholtz and Boncher will direct the band and chorus.

Xavier's French Club is preparing two French plays on the Christmas theme. The first, entitled "Christmas of the Shepherds," will be presented to club members Thursday. The second production, "There Was No Room for Them," will be staged Dec. 19.

At this meeting club members will each bring a small gift. In

Rumlow Found Guilty of Abuse; Sentence Delayed

Four Winnebago Hospital Aides Cleared in Death of Patient

OSHKOSH—Warner G. Rumlow, 33, 919 W. Fourth Ave., a Winnebago State Hospital aide, was found guilty Thursday of abusing and ill-treating a hospital patient.

Four other aides, Jack Die-sing, 28, 825 Randall Place, Robert L. Newton, 38, 715 Oak St., Theodore Kempinger, 27, 769 W. Lincoln Ave., and Byron H. King, 40, 67 Eveline St., were found innocent by the jury of six men and six women of knowingly permitting abuse and ill-treatment.

The five had been charged after the death of Ervin Kropidowski, 42, Stevens Point, who died early in the morning of Sept. 6 after having earlier been subdued by the aides.

Circuit Judge Arnold J. Cane ordered a pre-sentence investigation by the State Department of Public Welfare's division of corrections. He set sentencing of Rumlow for 2 p.m. Dec. 20. Rumlow was permitted to remain free under $500 bond until sentencing.

Maximum sentence for the offense is a misdemeanor and not a felony.

Defense Atty. Henry P. Hughes indicated he would file a motion for a new trial for Rumlow. The motion will be heard Monday, Judge Cane said.

Dr. C. H. Belcher, superintendent of Winnebago State Hospital, said Rumlow "will be fired immediately on the basis of his conviction."

The other four employees who have been suspended pending the outcome of the trial will be reinstated and are eligible to return for duty today," Dr. Belcher said. He did not say whether they would be on duty today.

The jury returned its verdict at 8:35 p.m., just two minutes shy of nine hours after starting deliberation at 11:33 a.m. At one point, a few minutes after 4 p.m., the jury returned to the courtroom for additional instructions and clarification on "reasonable doubt."

Judge Cane reminded the jury that the maximum sentence for the offense is a misdemeanor and not a felony.

Keller Hits Civil Service Committee

Says Dismissals Because of Pregnancy Will Harm Traffic Case Preparation by County

BY RAY PY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

County Judge Gustave Keller, in a criticism aimed at the county civil service and salary committee, the group charged with hiring county employees, said today he planned to dismiss any and all county traffic complaints which come to his court without adequate administrative preparation.

Judge Keller's remarks were directed toward Corporation Counsel A. W. Ponath's office where the administrative secretary, Mrs. Ruth Ann Kostirzak, who is charged with preparation of the county traffic calendar on Mondays, quits today due to pregnancy.

Mrs. Kostirzak was replaced Thursday afternoon by a new county employee who quit her position after less than a half day on the job. The new employee told Ponath the wages—$273 per month—were not adequate.

Delay Cases

Mrs. Kostirzak said she has prepared warrants and has completed administrative work for nine traffic cases to be heard Monday before Judge Keller. Any county arrests coming after 5 p.m. today will have to be delayed until a clerk-typist is hired by the civil service and salary committee.

Mrs. Kostirzak said she had planned to take a maternity leave from her job Nov. 29 and 14 in the high school auditorium, return after 90 days. She was director Stephen Schultz announced today.

The program will perform popular works by Irving Berlin, Leroy Anderson, and David Rose, in addition to classical selections by Richard Wagner, Antonin Dvorak, and Wolfgang Mozart.

The program will open with a brass fanfare, "Ode to A Holiday Festival," composed by the band's director. The fanfare will feature Jerry Spice and Dale Sachs on cornet, Ray Plzak on baritone, and Eugene Durkee on trombone.

Stage Band
The Stage Band, which was organized this fall, will present two modern jazz compositions, "It Might As Well Be Swing," by Terry Gibbs, and the Nelson Riddle arrangement of "You Make Me Feel So Young."

Several selections will also be performed by the Kaukauna Band of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students under the direction of Elwood Bick.

Tickets for the Christmas concert may be obtained from band members or at the school auditorium on the evening of the concert.

Broken Gasoline Pipe Blamed for Complaints of Fumes

A break in piping at a gasoline station in the 200 block of N. Richmond Street was found to be the cause of complaint of gasoline fumes in nearby buildings, the fire department reported at 1:15 p.m. today.

Firemen and power company workers had been investigating the complaints since Thursday afternoon.

It is believed a truck making deliveries to the gasoline station bumped the piping and caused a break.

Legion Makes Plans Activities For Yuletide

Post Will Give Party for Youths, Distribute Baskets

A bake sale, a paper drive and Christmas basket distribution to needy families are activities outlined for December by Appleton's American Legion.

There will be a bake sale Saturday, a county council meeting Wednesday, a paper drive Dec. 14, the basket distribution Dec. 21, and two Christmas parties Dec. 22—one for children and another for members.

The parent's club of the post's drum and bugle corps Saturday will hold a candy and bakery sale in Berken's Piggly Wiggly across from Goodland Field.

County Council

Delegates to the county council Wednesday will attend a meeting and Christmas party at Shiocton American Legion Club. They are James Vaughan, commander; Edward Arndt Jr., Lawrence Gloede, John McPeak and Milton Teske.

The paper drive Dec. 14 will be centered at the Legion Club. Chairman Carl Salentine said proceeds are to be used for purchase of musical instruments and uniforms for increased membership of the drum and bugle corps.

The Christmas baskets to needy families are to be packed at the club by auxiliary members, service officer and chairman Hjalmar Gill said, and delivered Dec. 21 by legionnaires.

Children's Party

A Christmas party for all children will be at 2 p.m. Dec. 22 in the Legion Memorial building on W. College Avenue. The program will include carol singing, cartoons and gifts.

Legion and auxiliary members will have their Christmas party, starting with a potluck supper, at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 22, drafting a resolution which forbids maternity leave for county employees. He said the resolution, which may be presented to

Girl Hospitalized After Arm Run Over By School Bus Wheel

Julie Gibbons, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons 315 W. Sunset Ave., was rushed to St. Elizabeth Hospital Thursday about 4:15 p.m. after she was run over by a school bus from which she had just gotten off.

County police said a Fox River Bus driven by Ira Kimball, stopped near the Gibbons' home and the girl alighted. The girl walked around the front of the bus and fell down. The bus then started up and rolled over the girl's arm.

The girl received a fractured arm, cuts and bruises.

Utility Requests Sub-Station Permit

PCS Studying Plan for Facilities In Kaukauna, Cost to be $500,000

KAUKAUNA — Electric and water utility has requested the public service commission to authorize construction of a sub-station at a cost of $68,000 and a switch structure at a cost of $72,000.

This is the first step in a three-year improvement program to insure adequate power for the rapidly growing communities served by the Kaukauna Utility and will ultimately cost about $500,000, according to Norbert Rhinerson, utility manager.

The public service commission will investigate books and office procedures of the local utility before approving the construction program. No public hearing will be held.

The sub-station is to be constructed at Delanglade and Blackwell Streets and will replace an existing station. The switch structure will be built across from the Badger plant on Island Street.

Future Power

The structure consists of a 34,000 volt high power line which will completely encircle the area served by the Kaukauna Utility. These will provide power from two directions thus providing an alternate power route in event of failure at any point on the line.

Current construction does not add anything to the current source of power, but this is being studied and an engineering concern will be hired to undertake a survey of future power needs and possible sources of power, noted the manager.

Distribution loads are growing at a rate of about 10 per cent per year, thus doubling every 10 years, noted Rhinerson. The local utility is already purchasing power from Wisconsin - Michigan Power company to serve its patrons.

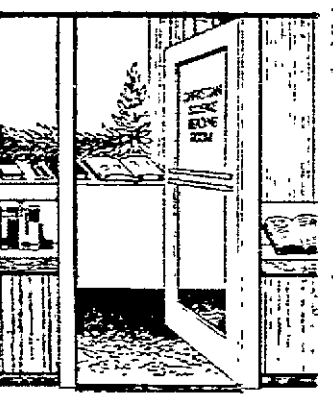

As communities grow and constant new uses are found for electricity, the utility must grow to provide adequate service to all customers, said the manager. He indicated additional sub-stations would be constructed in Little Chute, Kaukauna and Combined Locks within the next three years as part of the improvement program.

Neenah Man Heads Paper Industry Unit

NEENAH — Harold E. Pierce, 619 Elm St., Neenah, sales manager of bakery packaging, Marathon Division of American Can Co., Neenah, has been reelected president and board chairman for 1964 of the Waxed Paper Merchandising Council, Inc., a trade association whose members are engaged in the manufacture of packaging materials or in supplying raw materials to waxed paper manufacturers or converters. He has been a member of the council board of directors for the past eight years and served the association as vice president for four years prior to his election as president for 1963.

Following his graduation from Lawrence College, Appleton, he started his career with Marathon in 1931. He was engaged in various phases of plant production until 1938 when he joined Marathon's sales force. After several other promotions he was named to his present position in 1952.

"Bud" Pierce is also a member and past chairman (1961 and 1962) of the Waxed Paper Institute, Inc., board of directors.

Cut and Burned Larsen Man Injured In Neenah Explosion

NEENAH — A Larsen man ground and blowing the barrel was in serious condition in The-75 feet away onto the top of a 12 foot high storage shed.

The torch fell on top of him and he received severe burns to his legs and mid-section.

Besides the broken arm he also received a cut on his forehead, both believed caused by the top of the barrel which blew off in the explosion.

The co-partners of the salvage company, Sam and Dan Napuck, of 985 Bridgewood Drive, and 954 Hunt Avenue, respectively, received burns on their hands when they removed the clothing from Moede.

They were treated as out patients at Theda Clark Hospital and released.

According to workers at the scene, the steel barrel apparently contained no explosive liquid.

Moede was doing a routine job of cutting the tops off of salvaged barrels, which are then used to store scrap, when the explosion happened.

Hospital officials stressed that Moede's condition this morning was serious but not critical.

The salvage shop is located behind Choice Beverage Mart at the Fox Point Shopping Center, which is also owned by the Napuck brothers.

The explosion was heard throughout surrounding neighborhood and the impact of the blast shook homes and rattled windows two blocks away, according to residents near the salvage firm.

Two File Papers To Warm Political Race in Menasha

MENASHA — The number of official candidates in Menasha's April 7 election rose to three today as the announcement was made that two more residents have filed nomination papers.

Officially casting their hats in to the political ring were Ernest R. Koerner, 734 Fourth St., a truck driver for Yankee Paper Co., who is incumbent Fifth Ward alderman and is seeking another term in that ward; and Jerome Lingnofski, 617 Warsaw St., an employee for Kimberly-Clark Corp., who filed papers today to become the second official candidate in the Fourth Ward.

Lingnofski will be competing with Donald J. Sahotsky, 730 Roosevelt St., incumbent in the Fourth Ward, who was the first to officially become a candidate in the April 7 municipal election when he filed papers early this week.

Both Lingnofski and Sahotsky may be facing another Fourth Ward incumbent, Robert J. Probst, who has taken out nomination papers but has not filed.

Grade Students Will Present Yule Concert

Kaukauna Children Will Give Program At Civic Auditorium

KAUKAUNA — Public grade school students will present a Christmas music program at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the civic auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Gene Ploetz and Robert Lamont with Miss Carol Dolbier as accompanist.

The program will include several solo selections in addition to numbers by various grades.

First graders from Nicolet School will offer "Frosty The Snowman," "Away In A Manger," "Uncle Mistletoe," "Mary Had A Baby," "The Animals Loved Him Too," and "Suzy Snowflake."

First graders from Park School will offer "Rudolph, The Red Nosed Reindeer," "Wind Through The Olive Trees," and "Dear Santa Have You Had The Measles?"

Grades two from Park and Nicolet and a combined second and third grade at Nicolet will offer, "Up On The Housetop," "The Merry Christmas Bells," and "Grandfather Kringle."

Other Numbers

Third graders from the two schools will present, "Santa Claus Is Flying Through The Sky," "How Far Is It To Bethlehem," and "Twinkle Toes." A solo group from grades three and four will sing, "Do You See What I See?"

Fourth graders from both schools will sing "Pastores A Belen," in Spanish, "Christmas Song," and "Dance Mr. Snowman."

Fifth graders from Park will sing "The First Noel," "Oh How Lovely Is The Evening," "Noel, Noel," and "The Snow Lay on The Ground."

Sixth graders at Park will offer "Christmas Song," "Sweetly Sleeping in the Manger," "What Child Is This," and "Joy To The World."

A combination of fifth and sixth graders will conclude the program with "Twas The Night Before Christmas." Mrs. Ploetz has charge of music for the lower grades while Lamont directs fifth and sixth graders.

Changes Suggested for State Aid for Schools

UW Education Researchers Conduct Study Showing Financial Setup Needs Changing

A survey by education researchers at the University of Wisconsin at Madison suggests that present state programs of political considerations, but represents what the survey team thought would solve the problem.

The model calls for using the total public service requirements of a community as a basis for state aid and using net personal income as the basis for need. The amount a community receives would be based on what proportion of the state average could not be met by the community itself.

The survey was supported by funds from UW, the Ford Foundation, and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Part of Urban Studies

The Ford Foundation has given money to the UW Extension Division to support an urban studies program, and it was some of this grant which helped to finance the survey.

Associate director of the survey was Prof. Richard J. Ross. Co-investigators were Prof. Stewart D. North and Prof. Howard E. Wakefield.

Districts in four states—Wisconsin, New Jersey, Tennessee and Oregon — were studied.

Morever, the assessed valuation of the community is not the best measure for determining ability to pay, according to the survey. Study director LeRoy J. Peterson, UW professor of educational administration, said, "Educational support cannot be considered in a vacuum." There is a need to consider other tax requirements in the community such as municipal and county levies, instead of considering only the property tax, he added.

The survey presents a hypothesis of the community.

Police Charge Four Neenah Youngsters With Car Vandalism

NEENAH — Neenah Police Thursday apprehended four Neenah boys between 12 and 14 and charged them with ripping radio aerials off of six cars Monday night on Oak Street, Neenah.

The cars belonged to residents who were attending the annual Neenah municipal budget hearing at the Neenah Junior High School.

Two of the boys were on bikes and two were on foot when they vandalized the cars about 8:30 p.m. Monday.

According to Capt. Vernese Wollerman, the four have been referred to a juvenile worker and will be assessed the costs of the damage.

Arrest of the boys followed a three day investigation by Neenah Police.

$1.5 Million in Gifts, Grants To Wisconsin U

Oscar Rennebohm Foundation Gives Total of $250,000

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Acceptance of more than $1.5 million in gifts and grants for University of Wisconsin projects was reported by the board of regents today.

The Oscar Rennebohm Foundation Inc. of Madison presented $250,000, including $50,000 to purchase prints and drawings by master artists for the planned Elvehjem Art Center on the Madison campus.

The Rennebohm gift will promote five separate educational goals, most of them in the humanities. The foundation set up by the Madison business executive and former Wisconsin governor, gave the university $100,000 last month for other projects.

Gift of $117,390
Also received was $117,390 from the American Cocoa Research Institute for department of entomology work involving insect roles in reducing quantity and quality of harvested cocoa.

Encourage Learning
Inauguration of a project aimed at encouraging continued education for high school seniors not financially able to attend college was announced by the board.

It will be made possible through a $30,000 supporting grant from the Johnson Foundation of Racine. Total cost of the three-year project will be $150,000.

The board approved a request to the State Building Commission for $150,000 to equip a proposed University of Wisconsin extension center in Marinette.

The request is subject to approval of the State Coordinating Committee for Higher Education. The Marinette County Board has indicated it intends to build a center on a site at the eastern edge of the city.

high school is a 30-acre site between John and Calumet streets, and Schaefer and Buchanan streets, in the 13th Ward. The property was purchased in the 1950's.

The school board is expected to select an architect for the school within a week or two, having received authorization previously from the common council.

Kurtz said he thought actual naming of the school was "not too far away". The board hopes to have preliminary plans prepared over the winter months, approve the final plans in the spring and award contracts for construction in the summer of 1964.

The target date for moving into the senior high school, Appleton's second, is September of 1966.

Procedure
It is normal procedure for the school board to appoint a committee of two or three members to sift through suggested names for new schools and then make recommendations. School commissioners then vote on selection of a name.

The policy of the board has been to name the new buildings as soon as possible during the time preliminary plans are being prepared.

When plans were being made for the Albert Einstein Junior High School, scheduled for construction in 1964, suggested names were sent by letter to the school board by various citizens. School children also participated in the letter-writing.

Bids for the Einstein school construction will be opened next week.

nator of volunteer activities and is available to present programs to interested groups.

Cases up 10 per cent
Goerne has pointed out that although the county tuberculosis case rate was relatively low in 1962, the number of reported cases in Wisconsin during 1962 ran 10 per cent ahead of the previous year.

He also said TB remains the number one killer among communicable diseases. The estimated infection rate for Outagamie County is approximately 20 per cent, which means this percentage of the population would react positively to the tuberculin skin test.

Service given the county by the Outagamie County TB Association will be stepped up this year due to the new county-wide status of the group, formerly the Appleton Area TB Association.

Mrs. Leonard Weis, 1501 S. Alicia Drive, president and county campaign chairman, explained that out-lying areas previously have been served by the state association but now half of the funds from the Christmas Seal drive in these areas will stay with the county association.

Programs Extended
The programs in the area, such as tuberculin skin-testing in the schools and the mobile unit have been extended to a county-wide basis.

The 1963 county regional chairmen of the TB association are Mrs. Henry Scheig, 1315 S. The Wisconsin Anti-TB Association lists three basic steps to completely wipe out TB in Wisconsin: 1. the detection of every case of TB in every community, 2. the treatment of all cases found, and 3. the ultimate eradication of tuberculosis by breaking all chains of infection.

which industries he studied, but a check of schools, hospitals and several large offices and industries in the Appleton area show that maternity leaves are granted to women employees.

ors a verdict must be unanimous or it would result in a hung jury and a mistrial. But, he said, no juror should yield his reasonable doubt for the sake of agreeing.

After the verdict was read, Hughes asked the jury be polled on its finding on Rumlow. Each juror answered "yes" to the question "Was and is this your verdict" when asked by Clerk of Courts William F. Osborne.

While the five men were tried together, the cases had to be considered separately by the jury and separate verdicts had to be brought back.

The jury's findings came almost five weeks after the case actually started with a coroner's inquest on Oct. 31. A coroner's jury took testimony that day and returned a finding of abuse on Nov. 12.

Select Witnesses

The circuit court jury, which was selected Monday afternoon, listened to more than two days of testimony from 16 witnesses before starting its deliberation.

Rumlow was accused of hitting Kropidowski in the stomach with his knee while he and four other aides were attempting to restrain the patient about 2:30 a.m. Kropidowski died from internal bleeding as the result of four tears ranging from six inches to a foot in length, in a membrane in the stomach area.

The man had become violent and had obtained a weight board from a venetian blind and was threatening the aides. The five-ach to hold him down but denied overpowering Kropidowski in a hitting him.

Big Tax Rate Cut Due for Buchanan

Reduction Will Range From $4.40 to $37.70 Per $1,000

DARBOY—Town of Buchanan rate of year ago. The decrease property owners are in line for comes in the face of an apportionment hike from the school tax rate cuts ranging from $4.39 to $37.50 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. The township has been asked to contribute $5,153 to the district compared with $4,535 last year.

The big slice will come off district tax bills of persons living in last year's Appleton School District No. 10. A $13.33 tax rate cut is indicated for property owners in the Kaukauna District. Their rate next year will be $41.25. It was $54.60 a year ago.

Accounting for the cut is a sharp reduction in the amount the township will be required to pay toward the school district — $8,258, compared with $14,301 last year.

Top Rate
Paying the township's top tax rate, $33.66, will be residents of the Kimberly District. This is $4.40 less than they paid last year. The township's share of the Kimberly school budget is $32,012 compared with $39,305 a year ago.

Wrightstown District residents will have a $40.20 rate per $1,000 of assessed valuation—a reduction of $7.40 under the $47.60 rate. The township's share of the Wrightstown school budget is $138,567. This represents a decline from the current year's spending. Anticipated revenues totaling $60,727 for sources other than direct taxes will provide $60,727 of the township's total budget, including school taxes, is $138,567. Three other patients, in a near-by room, reported seeing one of the aides hitting Kropidowski in the stomach with his knee. Rumlow had admitting being at the man's midsection and of putting his knee on Kropidowski's stomach to hold him down but denied overpowering Kropidowski in a hitting him.

The township's $27,134 share of county taxes is the major expenditure factor. Road work is expected to take another $15,000.

Work Completed For School Opening

Crews Continued Work on Other Non-Academic Parts of Addition

KAUKAUNA—Most of the $1.1 million was designed by Architect $30,000 addition to Kaukauna George G. Narovec and general High School was ready for occupancy when classes began in construction, Appleton.

General construction cost was $1,069,000, heating and ventilation of the building not included in cost $224,399 and work was done by August Winters, Appleton electrical bid was $146,560.

Formal open house will be with work done by Krueger from 1.30 to 5 p.m. Sunday Electric, Wisconsin Rapids, and Members of the student council plumbing bid was $104,863 with work done by R. Wenzel Co., Appleton.

The addition increased the capacity of the school from 800 to 1,500 students and made possible transferring of seventh and eighth grade students to the old building, portion of the high school thus student commons, superintendent providing additional classroom of schools' office and the space for lower elementary students at Kaukauna School.

Grades seven and eight have an enrollment of 143 while grades nine through 12 have a 1154 enrollment and these attend classes in both the old and new section of the high school. When high school enrollment requires use of the building, the lower grades will be transferred either to a junior high or elementary building.

The new cafeteria was needed as a hot lunch program was inaugurated along with a 7-period day this year. Students are required to remain in school through the lunch hour thus many are taking advantage of the hot lunch program.

The cafeteria opens onto a large, well lighted student commons which has a variety of uses. It is utilized for school dances, large group meetings and a general meeting place for students without obstructing traffic. In the future it could be utilized for large banquets which would overflow the cafeteria area.

Dance Floor

The commons is used for a dance floor and the cafeteria as a lounge during regular school dances. A stair landing at one end of the commons also permits using this portion of the building for a large gathering when a small elevated stage is needed.

Originally the commons was to have been an open court, but after being studied it was decided to enclose the entire area resulting in larger classrooms and utilization of considerably more space. The new addition incorporates 104,722 square feet.

Xavier Forms Gymnastic Team For Exhibitions

An exhibition gymnastic team has been organized by Xavier High School physical education teacher David Hussey, and will make half-time appearances at basketball games this winter.

The 25 members of the team, made up of both boys and girls, have already appeared once and will present shows at basketball games at Xavier, St. John, Little Chute, Fox Valley Lutheran High School and Lawrence College. Other appearances are being planned.

The presentation features vaulting, trampoline work, tumbling and other apparatus work.

The purpose of the organization, according to Hussey, is to arouse interest in gymnastics in the Appleton area.

The group practices from 7 to 8 p.m. each Thursday in the St. Mary School gymnasium in Appleton. Hussey said any students interested in trying out for the team are invited to do so. Students from any Appleton high school may join.

Paper Drive for FVL Scheduled By Junior Class

Teachers Helped Plan New Kaukauna School Addition

Presented Educational Ideas to Board of Education, Architects

KAUKAUNA — While plans for supplementary instruction for students who need extra help, $30,000 addition to Kaukauna who are absent for extended periods, teams of teachers and those who wish to further representing various fields of their development skills.

study were called on to prepare. The biology department has additions to the school to better serve student needs in respective fields.

Thus teachers presented the student biologist in a practical school board and architects with and functional environment. Ideas on educational instruments and aids as well as room design best suited for the learning experience. Teachers were questioned about features of the school which enhanced its value as an educational teaching unit at the conclusion of the building program.

Introduced was a new reading laboratory equipped with a tape recorder, reading accelerators, been improved on the main controlled reader, tachistoscope, stage to enhance drama possibilities at the school and a tape laboratory and necessary material making it one of the most up-to-date methods of teaching reading in public schools today.

Added Rooms
Added rooms have made it possible to introduce new courses in social studies and the sciences. The room is acoustically designed, has regular stage lights and spot lights and has microphone jacks for team teaching in this front and rear to permit a field as well as permit classes teacher to walk through the field of variable size. Conference room discussing with students.

Lectures, Films
The room is also utilized for lectures, films, slides and student productions in keeping with the field being studied by English classes. It permits grouping of English classes for special lectures.

A language laboratory was added provided through the school addition. This area consists of 30 booths with earphones and microphones, four booths which include tape recorders and the teacher's console which controls all student positions. The teacher's console contains three tape decks, a record player and switches which allows the teacher to monitor each student's phonograph, tape recorder, flash light or to carry on a conversation with individual students. The laboratory is provided with the latest films, tape recordings and books necessary to make the language laboratory meet the aims for which it was designed. Extensive use is made of filmstrip projectors, overhead and opaque projectors.

More Students
The art room permits an increased number of students to take art and to work on more advanced projects. It also permits adding more phases of art to the curriculum. Special desks, storage facilities, work tables, shelving, cabinets and other features have been included in the art room. The student commons at the center of the new addition doubles as an ideal display area for completed art projects.

Other features which enhance the educational picture are expected to be noted as teachers become more acquainted with their teaching areas and students learn of aids available to them.

Economics Study Center Opening Soon at Wausau
MADISON (AP)—A research center to work on economic problems of northern Wisconsin will open at Wausau this week.

Gov. John W. Reynolds, in announcing the opening said the center is a joint venture of the University of Wisconsin Extension and the State Department of Resource Development. It will be headquartered in the Marathon County Extension Center.

Henry Ahrensbrak, director of the Wausau Extension Center, will assign two staff members to part time duties in the northern area research. They are Charles Miller, assistant director of the center and Wilbur J. Smith, an economist.

Sherman W. Weiss of Hayward, northern area representative of the Resource Development Department, will spend two days a week at the center and Harold L. Geisse, a department consultant, will be transferred from Madison to full time status at Wausau.

School Changes Brought on By Addition

Duplication Seen In Some Features Of New Section

KAUKAUNA — The addition to Kaukauna High School not only added much needed classroom space to the school, but also necessitated some changes in the existing building as areas in the new section would duplicate features of the old building.

Main change was in the old music room which was converted to a language laboratory. Here the large room was utilized for soundproof study booths, microphone and ear phone stalls and a regular classroom. This permits the teacher to conduct regular teaching sessions as well as work with recordings, tapes, projectors and other equipment in the language lab.

Math Rooms
The library in the old building was converted into two mathematics rooms, the athletic equipment room was converted into a textbook library and the locker room for the old gym room, seventh and eighth grade was enlarged to serve as a lock room for the seventh, eighth and ninth graders.

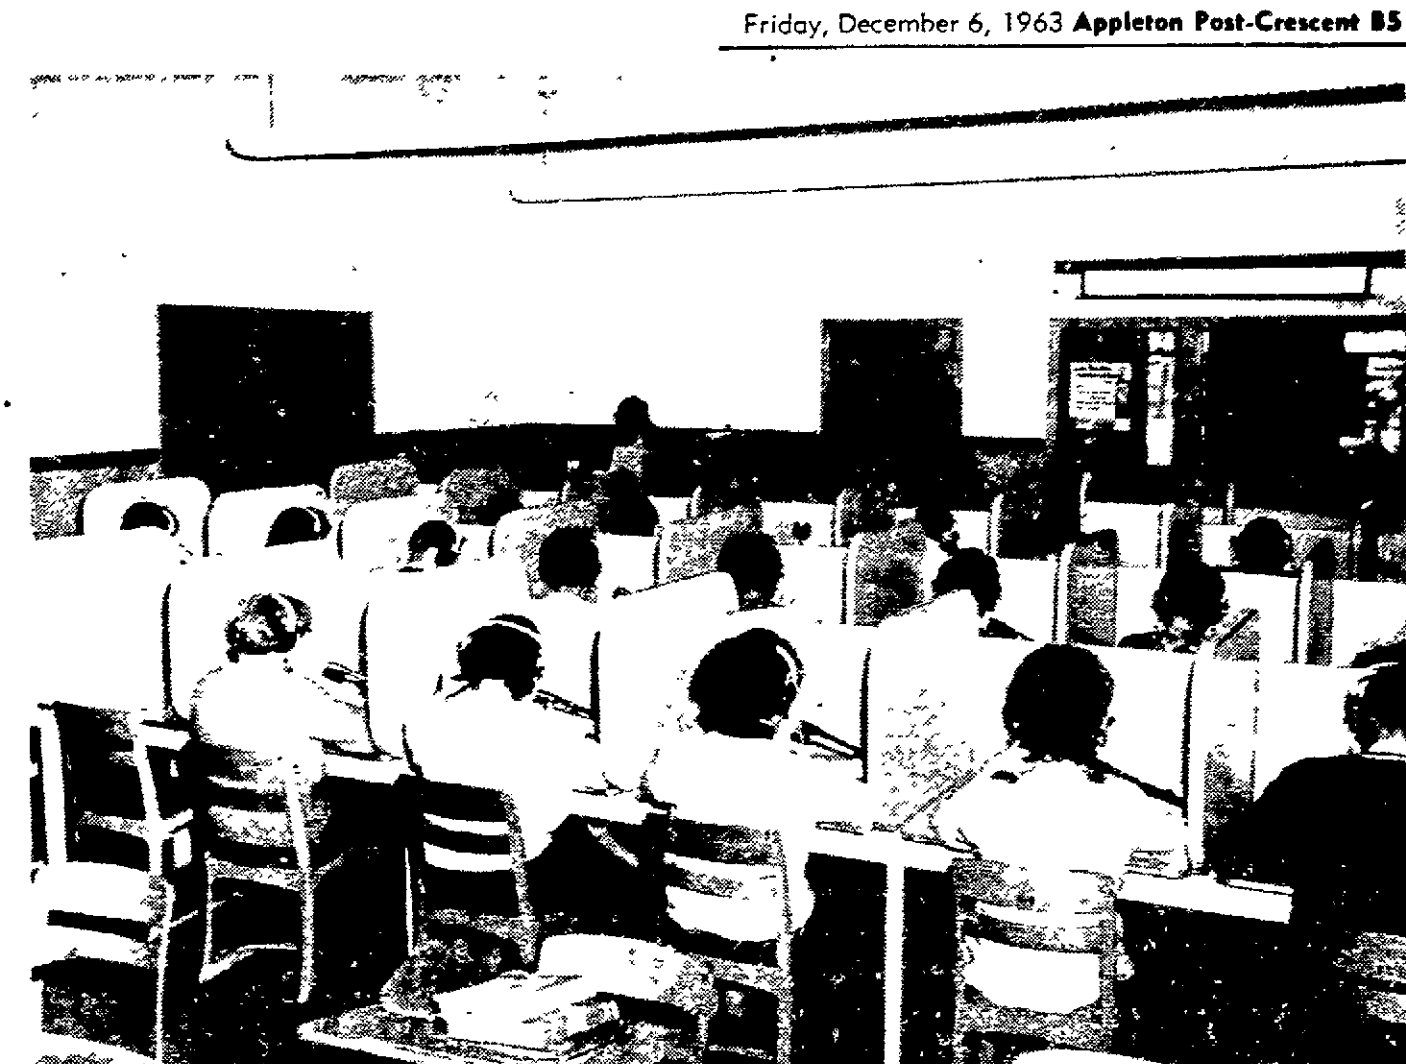

One of the regular classrooms was converted into a reading laboratory and an elevator was installed to service all three floors. Both the north and west entrances to the old building were remodeled and changed. A general modernization program was carried out through the old portion of the building. Expansion of the building to blend with the modernistic atmosphere in the new sort of a plateau on enrollment," Kurtz said hopefully.

Other features which enhance the educational picture are expected to be noted as teachers become more acquainted with their teaching areas and students learn of aids available to them.

BONUS BUY IN EXTRA-VALUE FEATURES at no extra cost: Deep-Dip rust-proofing, Double-Safety Brakes, many, many more.

SMART BUY IN BUCKETS... exciting options of slim reclining bucket seats with console, or wide reclining buckets; safety headrests, too.

The Music Room in the old portion of Kaukauna High School was converted into a language laboratory when a new music area was incorporated into the new addition. Students are shown listening with individual

School Officials Study Future

How many school children will Appleton have in 1970, and how many schools will they need?

Appleton public school officials are in the process of wading through a sea of statistics in search of the answer to these questions.

A report on estimated growth through 1966 and predictions of the enrollment patterns through 1970 is expected to be ready early in January, according to Superintendent of Schools Royce E. Kurtz.

This will be used by the site committee of the school board to plan sites for future schools and to make recommendations on the use of existing schools, such as Elmdale, Triangle and Red Star schools which were added to the city system through attachment Elmdale and Triangle are being used now for office and maintenance work rather than for classes.

Appleton public school enrollment reached 10,033 this fall, for an increase of more than 1,600 pupils in two years.

Stockbridge Chamber Will Elect Officers, Sponsor 'Pike Derby'
STOCKBRIDGE — Officers of the Chamber of Commerce will be elected by the new board of directors at a meeting tentatively set for Dec. 17.

The Chamber of Commerce is preparing Christmas decorations to be put up in the village. Ornaments will be the traditional lighted Christmas trees. Paul Westenberger is serving as chairman of the decorations committee.

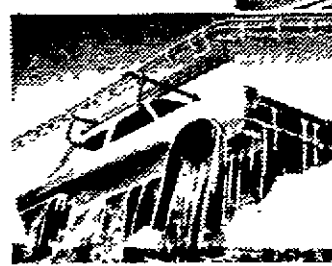

It was voted at the Tuesday meeting of the Stockbridge Chamber of Commerce to hold the annual "pike derby". The contest will begin Dec. 29 and will run through Feb. 27. A $5 prize will be given for the largest pike registered each week.

The points for registering are Mayer's Locker, Nemitz's Resort, Faro Springs, Harbor Bar and Keuler's Bar.

BY CAPPY DICK

To play the game described in the table and place any object on the table to place here you will need a shopping bag, a collection of grocery items and as many friends as you can round up to play.

It's a game that tests everyone's memory.

To start, place a grocery item on the table. The first player to find the item in the shopping bag is the winner.

When the bag has been filled to the brim, it is removed from sight and each player is given paper and pencil and instructed to write a shopping list naming all things that were placed in the bag in the exact order in which they were deposited.

The winner is the player who prepares the most nearly correct list.

The next opportunity to flag Appleton Xavier High School's basketball Hawks falls to St. John's basketball Chutes.

At 3 p.m. Sunday in the Xavier gym, the Hawks will put a pair of winning streaks on the line—30 straight against all opposition and 17 straight against Fox Valley Catholic Conference foes—in the contest against the Little Chute delegation.

If the Hawks are successful in their 1963-4 home conference debut, they'll equal the school's football victory streak of 31 straight. For the Chutes, who have lost their only two non-league games, it will be the FVCC inaugural.

This is the first big weekend of conference activity. In the last two weeks, two league games were played—both involving Marmette Central. Defending champion Xavier and a top challenger, Green Bay Premontre, vanquished the Cavaliers.

Tonight, Menasha St. Mary travels to DePere to face Pennings. In pre-conference play, the Zephyrs won one of four games, while Pennings went winless.

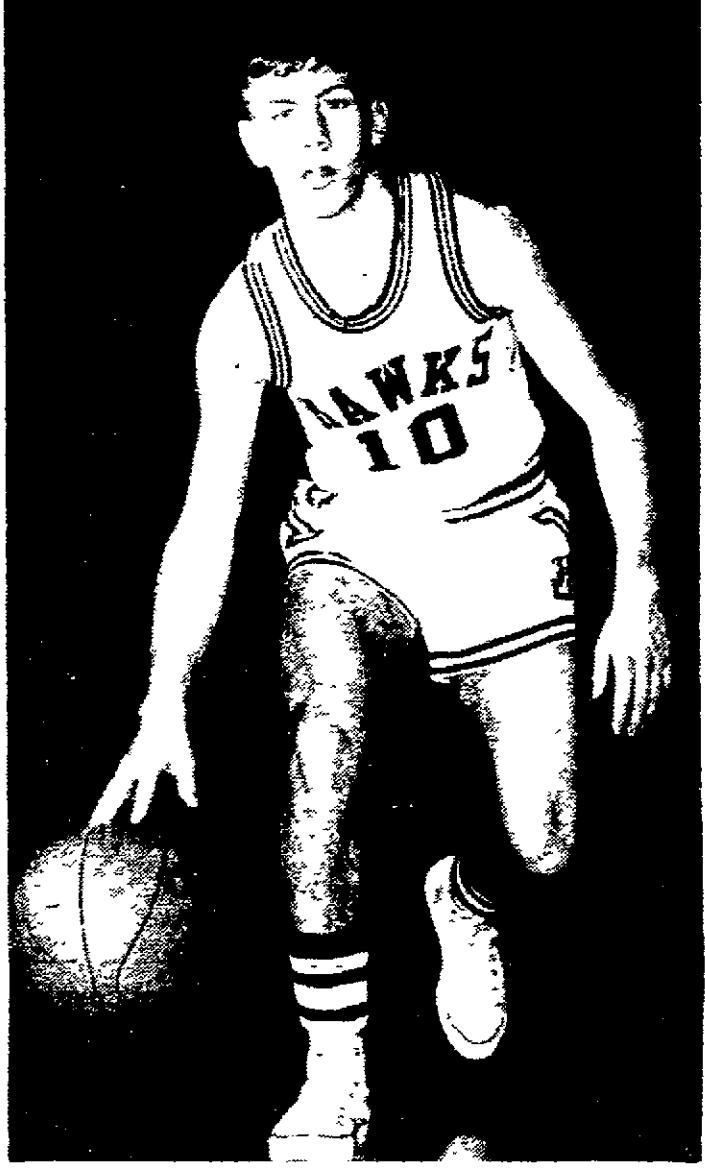

Saturday night, Oshkosh Lourdes—which has been idle in game competition for three weeks—invades Marmette, and Premontre plays host to Fond du Lac Springs.

Four of the Hawks who have started in each of the three victorious outings this season will again face the opening tip-off in Sunday's matinee. They are: forwardmen Bob DeBruin and Tom Rankin and guards Rocky Bleier and Tim Garvey. The fifth starter will be senior Bill Timmers, who opened for the first time at Marshfield last Saturday.

Scoring leader Bleier, after being limited to a 17-point total for the first two games, rampaged for his career high of 28 at Marshfield. DeBruin is a close second with 44 points. Garvey has produced 34 points to date, while Rankin has 29. Timmers scored seven points (for a season total of 11) and grabbed eight rebounds in his first lengthy stint.

LOS ANGELES—The Packers won two of their last three Western Division championships in the mammoth Coliseum.

They can't win a fourth straight in the same park Saturday but they can win the big game that might lead to the title.

Kickoff is set for 3:36, Green Bay time, and the battle will be televised nationally.

Saturday, they say here, isn't a good pro football day, but upwards of 60,000 will try to keep the Rams hot. This will be the Rams' home windup and they'll be going for their fourth straight win and their sixth in their last eight games. The Packers have found the

Packers' Co-Founder, George Calhoun, Dies At 73 in Green Bay

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY—George Whitney Calhoun, retired Press-Gazette sports and telegraph editor and co-founder of the Green Bay Packers, died early today in St. Vincent Hospital.

Death of the 73-year-old newspaperman was attributed to cancer. The oldest Press-Gazette employee in point of service at the time of his retirement in 1957, Calhoun had been a semi-invalid for the last several years. He had been crippled with arthritis for many years.

Known throughout the nation as "Cal" in the days of the Packers' first world championships, Calhoun was a great-grandson of Daniel Whitney, founder of the city of Green Bay. He was born in this city but spent most of his youth in Buffalo, N.Y., where he was an outstanding football and hockey player in his high school and college days.

Calhoun joined the staff of the Press-Gazette May 5, 1917, as telegraph and sports editor, the latter then a part-time post. He developed the sports section of the paper as a separate department in the 1920s but later devoted his entire time to handling telegraph news.

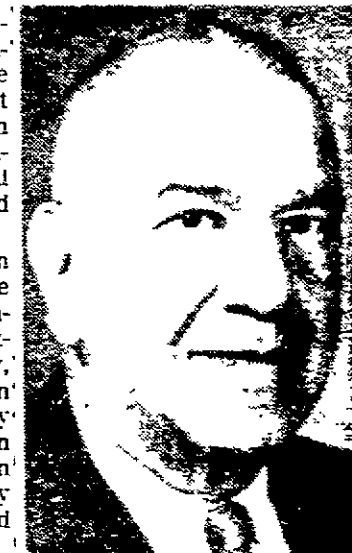

Sandlot Team

He joined with E. L. (Curly) Lambeau in the formation of the Packers as a local sandlot football team in 1919 and remained an officer in the corporation for many years after the club, organized as a result of a casual street corner conversation, became a major league franchise. He was secretary and publicity director until 1949, when he resigned, but remained a member of the board of directors.

As club secretary and Press-Gazette sports writer, Calhoun accompanied the team on its travels for many years. Until he stopped traveling with the club in 1944, he had never missed a game at home or away.

In all those years, however, Calhoun never saw an opening kickoff. As guardian of the pass gate in stadiums throughout the country, he became famed as "Gates Ajar" Calhoun, the toughest gate guard to crash in the National Football League. Those who tried always claimed he had the best "pass defense" in professional football.

On Nov. 18, 1956, Calhoun was honored between the halves of the last professional game ever played in old City Stadium, the field had been built on land once owned by his great grandfather and was opened Sept. 13, 1925, with a Packer game against Iron Mountain, Mich.

It was a football injury in college that crippled him for life. While playing for the University of Buffalo, he was tackled and thrown against a goal post, being so severely injured that he was completely paralyzed for some time. He never fully recovered from the accident.

Prior to his injury, Calhoun

Contractor Buys Eagles For $5½ Million

New Owner Has Agreed to keep
Team In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Boyish-looking, 36-year-old Jerry Wolman has bought the Philadelphia Eagles for $5,505,500.

Wolman

Furthering the trend of young millionaires taking control of National Football League teams.

Subject to approval of the NFL, Wolman, a Washington contractor, will join such young owners as Art Modell of Cleveland, Dan Reeves of Los Angeles, Clint Murchison of Dallas, the Bidwill brothers of St. Louis and Clay Ford of Detroit.

Another trend is toward single ownership. The sale of the Eagles Thursday by 65 stockholders leaves only Green Bay and Minnesota as teams owned by large groups of stockholders.

"Ever since I was a kid and hitchhiked from Shenandoah, Pa., (his native town), to Philadelphia to see the Eagles play, I wanted to own this team," Wolman said.

He reportedly is worth more than $30 million made by building apartments and office buildings. He owns the National Theater building in Washington and the Raleigh Hotel. He said he expects to move to Philadelphia once the purchase is approved.

In line with an unwritten NFL rule, Wolman has promised he will control 51 per cent of the stock. His associate, Earl Foreman, a Washington attorney, is buying the other 49 per cent.

The new owner also has agreed to keep the team in Philadelphia.

2 Saturday Tilts Bear on Bowl Picture

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Besides the Army-Navy game, seven other major college football games are on Saturday's program. Two could possibly bear on the bowl picture—Penn State at Pittsburgh and Colorado at Air Force.

Pitt's Panthers are No. 2 in line for the visitors' spot in the Cotton Bowl, against Texas. Navy is the top choice of the Cotton Bowl, but must await a final decision from the Pentagon.

The same holds true for the Air Force, which is standing in line for a Gator Bowl spot opposite North Carolina. The Falcons must first beat Colorado, then get approval from higher up.

The remainder of the schedule shows Tulsa at Louisville, Wyoming at West Texas, SMU at Baylor, Rice at TCU and New Mexico at Arizona.

Fox Valley Lutheran High School will open the toughest Badger Lutheran Conference season in the loop's history tonight, and Coach Gerry Kaniess is worried.

"We haven't been working," the FVL mentor says, and he has been juggling the Foxes' starting lineup in this week's practices in an effort to prepare his team for the challenge of a revitalized Winnebago Lutheran Academy.

Kaniess was disappointed with the showing of several of his seniors in the game against Manawa last Tuesday, which the Appleton squad dropped, 72-58. As a result the five FVL cagers wearing red shirts at Wednesday's practice session, symbolic of being in the starting lineup, included some new faces.

The quintet had former reserve Gary Buss at center, Barry Wierschke and Bob Krueger at forwards, and ex-second stringers Ron Vandertie and Mark Dahlke at the guard spots. Dahlke was subbing for the sick Wayne Koenig, but Kaniess made it clear that any of these six, Don Arps, Larry Kahler or Lee Kiepke could start in the game.

The FVL mentor is determined to find a combination that can cope with the threat that Winnebago possesses.

The Vikings have fallen to FVL 15 straight times on the hardwood, and the WLA squad would love to throw a monkey wrench into the Foxes' title hopes.

Coach Ray Seibel is optimistic about the Vikings' chances, and feels strongly that his boys can down FVL.

Top returnee for the Fond du Lac school is senior forward Gordy Vetter, who garnered his share of honors last year. Besides tying for the BLC scoring title with 97 points in six games, the WLA ace was named to the all-conference and all-tournament squads.

Other top cagers for Winnebago Lutheran are Daryll Krug, and Craig Johnson, both juniors. Krug holds down a guard position, while Johnson mans a forward slot.

Fox Lutheran won last year's second contest with WLA, 55-51, and two departed FVL seniors, Verlyn Dobberstein and John Koschmann, "carried" the Fox Lutheran quint in that game.

An added incentive for the hosts will be the fact that this is the last conference season—and WLA has yet to down FVL in a loop game. The highest the Vikings ever placed in a BLC race was a distant second in 1961-62.

Fox Lutheran shared the title with Lakeside Lutheran of Lake Mills (then of Fort Atkinson) last year, while winning the undisputed crown in 1961-62.

If high-scoring potential stirs up your basketball interest, you should pay special note to the threat for the Vikes.

Grinnell-Lawrence College Midweek Conference opener at 7:30 p.m. today in Alexander gymnasium.

Grinnell will bring last season's fourth-best conference, 75-62 loss to Stevens Point Wednesday night.

The home opener against Grinnell tonight will be the first street corner conversation, because of two for the Vikes this weekend. Saturday afternoon (1:30 p.m.) defending co-champion Cornell will visit the Lawrence league selection. Another big gun for the Pioneers is 6-6 John Sundell who finished in the top 15 scorers last season and paced Grinnell in rebounds.

Ungrudt, who already holds the Lawrence one-season scoring mark and several other standards, is the top offensive threat for the Vikes.

Sophomore Tom Steinmetz indicated that he is ready to give Ungrudt lots of scoring help. Steinmetz, a sophomore, scored 17 points, as did Ungrudt, in a 75-62 loss to Stevens Point Wednesday night.

as word drifted out from Chicago. The Pack went on to win the game regardless 20-17.

A Green Bay victory Saturday will heap pressure on the Bears who then must beat the 49ers in Chicago Sunday to keep their tight lead. If the Packers and Bears win this weekend the race goes down to the end—when the Bays meet the 49ers in San Francisco a week from tomorrow and the Bears host the Lions a week from Sunday.

Rugged Defense
The Packers' big problem will be cracking the rugged, and huge Ram defense. This proved to be no problem earlier in Green Bay when the Pack won 42-10 but the Rams have found themselves since. Their high point was a 6-0 loss to the Bears, which followed a 56-14 shellacking by the Bruins.

Green Bay goes into action Saturday well rested. The Bays have had 10 days to re-lax and prepare for this key game. Capt. Jim Ringo of the offense said "this is important." And, incidentally, this is one of the benefits of the Thanksgiving Day game—thus balancing off the lack of practice time before that game.

The big question in the Packers' camp is Tom Moore, the hard-hitting left half. A healthy Moore means a more productive Jim Taylor. Moore missed the Lion game with an eye injury.

Tom says he expects to play but a final decision likely will be made after a light drill in the Coliseum today.

Nitschke on Sidelines
While Bart Starr and company will be trying to pierce the Ram defense the Packer defense will play its first game without one of its top cozs. That would be Ray Nitschke who suffered a broken arm at Detroit.

Nitschke is here and will do his cheering from the sidelines. Capt. Bill Forester will take over Ray's middle linebacker spot.

Forester's righting a total of six in a four-day linebacker post.

The Packers will look at a one-quarterback Ram team for the first time in a couple of years. Roman Gabriel has been installed at quarterback and Fraser, who had a combined total of 32 years service at their keep him there—come heck or respective schools.

The first coach to lose his job played in Green Bay was Zerk Bratkovski. He was Tennessee's Jim McDonald, terminated Gabriel and Zeke Bratkovski.

Bratkovski now is wearing a son on coaches. Two days later Packer uniform, but it's not Georgia's Johnny Griffith and likely that he'll work against Billy Hildebrand of Wake Forest, his former teammates. The were asked to vacate their Packers have another ex-Ram posts.

Only two jobs have been in relief of Lionel Aldridge filled, by Douglas Dickey at times. That would be Urban Tennessee and Vince Dooley at Henry.

3 Quarterbacks Are Selected for 1963 All-American Football Squad

BY BOB HOOBING

NEW YORK (AP) — Three quarterbacks including miraculous Midshipman Roger Staubach, a gritty little man, and a part-time teacher join returnee Daman Bame on the 1963 Associated Press All-America football team.

Staubach won the Heisman Trophy as the College Player of the Year. With Saturday's game against Army remaining, he has accounted for 1,738 yards passing and running.

This was the year of the quarterback. Jimmy Sidle, who guided once-beaten Auburn to an Orange Bowl trip, and Billy Lothridge, Georgia Tech's "Do It Yourself" exponent, were the other field generals picked on the recommendations of eight regional boards. The sportswriters and broadcasters took into account all games through Nov. 30.

Sherman Lewis, a 154-pound Michigan State Sprinter, completes the backfield. Averages 225 Pounds. A line averaging 225 pounds, features Dame, rated a better guard than a year ago when he spurred Southern California's national champions.

End Dave Parks of Texas Tech, first man picked in the National Football League draft, is paired with Bob Lacey of North Carolina.

Scott Appleton, a 235-pounder who has been practicing teaching at an Austin elementary school, blocked and tackled Texas as its first perfect season in 25 years. At the other tackle is Minnesota's Carl Eller, who stood out for an unspectacular team.

Guard Bob Brown, "the Big Daddy" of Nebraska's first conference champions in 23 years, and fiery center - linebacker Dick Butkus of Rose Bowl-bound Illinois complete the squad.

Staubach, Sidle and Butkus are juniors, the rest seniors.

Staubach is just plain hard to believe. Against Michigan, for example, he completed 14 of 16 passes for 237 yards and two touchdowns, then ran 70 more yards. He accounted for 235 yards in Navy's only loss, the wild 32-28 setback to Southern Methodist, and on the final play was passing for an apparent winning score when a defender batted the ball away from the receiver in the end zone.

Basing the selections on all-around excellence rather than on a quarterback, fullback and two halfbacks, the team also includes Sidle and Lothridge.

The Southeastern Regional Board rated Sidle slightly ahead of Lothridge and 1962 All-American George Mira, in that order, at the signal calling job. Mira, who had a better passing record this year with less help, is in the second team backfield with Baylor's Don Trull, Duke's Jay Wilkinson and Gale Sayers of Kansas.

Never Missed Game
Although a marked man who sometimes crashed into linemen 100 pounds heavier, Lewis never missed a game in three varsity seasons and always was a threat to break open a contest at any moment.

He turned in five runs of over 30 yards this season.

Parks was grabbed by the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL draft and may be used as a defensive back.

GREEN BAY — South St. Paul's Steers challenge the U.S. Hockey League-leading Green Bay Bobcats here this weekend.

General Manager Murray Williamson, whose Steers skate into the Brown County Veterans' Memorial Arena with an 0-3 record, further contends, "We haven't been outplayed yet this year."

The Steers will be the Bobcats' guests Saturday night and Sunday afternoon. The starting time of the matinee has been changed from 2:30 until 3:30 to avoid conflict with the telecast of the Chicago Bears-San Francisco 49ers game.

The Steers dropped their league season opener at Rochester, 6-4, then surrendered 5-4 and 3-0 decisions at Waterloo over the weekend.

The Minnesotans have been befooled by the addition of Ken Yackel, former player - coach of the St. Paul Saints. They also boast a talent-laden new line of Marchel Rochon, Fred Brown and Art Miller, all with the Saints last season.

The series finale has been designated as "Bargain Day" by Bobcat General Manager John Biolo. Two adults will be admitted for the price of one reserved seat ticket in any price bracket, he announced.

The price of children and student tickets also has been reduced from 50 to 25 cents.

was also a star hockey goalie in Eastern high school, college and amateur circles. As a member of the Buffalo Athletic Club team in 1905-06, he traveled to many Eastern U. S. and Canadian cities.

George Whitney Calhoun was born in Green Bay Sept. 16, 1890. His mother, Emmeline Whitney, was the daughter of Joshua Whitney and granddaughter of Daniel Whitney, Green Bay's founder. His father, Walter A. Calhoun, was a civil engineer who came to this city originally to lay out the water lines when the Green Bay Water Co., a private corporation, replaced its original wooden pipes with metal.

The family moved to New Orleans, La., and later to Buffalo, where Calhoun remained through college, but he frequently spent long periods of time in Green Bay. He graduated from Boys' Technical High School of Buffalo in 1910, then attended the University of Buffalo.

Returns to Green Bay
He began his newspaper career with the Buffalo Times, although he had worked during school vacation for the old Green Bay Review, published by the late Charles Kerr. In 1915, he returned permanently to Green Bay to become telegraph editor for the Review.

Two years later, he joined the staff of the Press-Gazette. Calhoun retired as telegraph editor in 1957 but remained as a special assistant to the managing editor until failing health forced his complete retirement.

Thereafter he rarely left his home. About two years ago he began contributing feature articles on early Packer history to the Press-Gazette which were published under the head of "Cal's Comments," a title he had used in the 1920s and 1930s.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete but the final rites are tentatively set for Monday. Cal had no immediate relatives. So far as is known, his closest living relative is Mrs. Eldridge Jacobi, of Green Bay, a cousin.

While professional football was Calhoun's first love, he also promoted semi-pro baseball and for the period beginning in the 1930's he was secretary and publicity man for every semi-pro baseball league in northeastern Wisconsin. Among the cities represented in those leagues at various times were Appleton, Kimberly, Kaukauna, Little Chute, Clintonville, Green Bay, Seymour, Wisconsin Rapids, Sheboygan and Fond du Lac. With the advent of organized baseball in the Fox Valley in 1940, Calhoun stepped out of the active picture.

49ers Think They Can Do It Again

McHan Has Recovered From Injury for Tilt With Bears

CHICAGO (AP) — The lowly 49ers think they can catch lightning in a bottle covered from injury in last Sunday's 21-17 San Francisco loss to Los Angeles and will be ready for the Bears Sunday.

The Bears will be under great pressure when they Francisco marked McHan's first start as emergency replacement for injured John Brodie. The well-traveled McHan wove the same spell he used to cast over the Bears while with the former Chicago Cardinals.

However, the Bears won't regard the 49ers as lightly as they did the first time around after floating into San Francisco on a five-game winning streak.

Bear tackle Earl Leggett said "We certainly owe those guys a score off against the 49ers something."

the holidays. Coach Gene (Torchy) Clark also announced that Jim Hayes has dropped from the squad and that Paul Schriener has been added.

The new basketball rule, which provides for stopping of the clock at every violation, has been playing hob with Xavier's favorite defensive weapon, the press. With more playing time available under the rule change, there is also more time for Hawks — and other pressing players — to accumulate fouls.

Clark reports that he took the press off after the first quarter at Marshfield because DeBruin and Rankin had each picked up two fouls.

(Xavier, however, had finished a 26-12 lead by that time.) In the preceding game, at Marinette, Clark didn't choose to press in the first quarter when the Cavaliers jumped off to a lead, then played keep-away with the ball. Xavier, however, roared to victory in the second half.

In three games, the Hawk defense has restricted the opposition to an average of only 48 points. Xavier is averaging 66.7.

St. John's offensive average to date is 48.5, while defensively, it is 65.6. Most of the Chuters' troubles have come in the second half. They led Fox Valley Lutheran, 40-31, at halftime but were swamped in a 43-16 second half. Against DePere, the Chuters were tied, 21-all, at games off the pace. The only other honor score was a 500 series by Eunice Dietzen.

Mike King smacked a 244 with game and Ed Flood had a 604/15.5. Dave Van Vreede is next, series to divide honors in the with 21; and Mike Weyenberg Grocers League at the 41 Bowl has tallied 18. The other two Thursday night. King finished with a 594 set and Flood's series included a 231 game.

Judges Urged To Take Part in Framing Laws

Interest Needed in Framing of Family Code in Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Wisconsin's county judges were told Thursday they should take a more active role in framing legislation affecting family and divorce laws.

State Sen. Jerris Leonard, R-Milwaukee, spoke at the opening session of the winter conference of the Wisconsin State Board of County Judges About 100 judges registered for the conference, set to close today.

"I wonder if you take enough interest in the family code and in marriage and divorce law in Wisconsin?" Leonard asked. "No one can speak with more authority than a county judge. You have a far greater influence than any other segment of society today."

Bill Pending

Manitowish County Judge Leon H. Jones blasted what he said was an attempt by the Legislature to control the State Investment Board. He said a pending bill which would instruct the board to purchase $3 million worth of Menominee Enterprises, Inc., bonds was, in effect, a raid on the judges' retirement funds.

"I don't want our money to go down the Wolf River in a canoe," Jones said. The bonds were issued by Menominee Enterprises when it took over the business interest of Wisconsin's Menominee Indians when they were released from federal control.

Oppose Report

Judge Donald A. Rock of Douglas County opposed a committee report which urged the judges to prepare to introduce a new retirement plan into the Legislature in 1965. He said the judges should act now, not wait two years. No formal action was taken on Rock's proposal, but the judges agreed to ask their respective lawmakers to support a retirement bill now before the Legislature.

Rusk County Judge Donald J. Sterlinske was elected chairman for the coming year. Other officers named were Judges Joseph W. Wilkus of Sheboygan County, first vice-chairman; Joseph E. Schultz of Dodge County, secretary, and Wendell McHenry of Waupaca County, treasurer.

Visits Planned at Nazareth And Jerusalem; 3,000 Miles From Rome and the Vatican

BY EUGENE LEVIN

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI will leave Rome for the Holy Land on Jan. 4 and will return Jan. 6, the Vatican Press Office announced today.

The Vatican still did not say the Pope would travel by air, which no Pope has ever done before. But obviously he could only make the 3,000-mile round trip to Palestine in three days by plane.

Pope Paul will be the first Pope to visit the Holy Land since St. Peter—the first Pope—left Palestine after the death of Christ. He will be the first Roman Catholic pontiff to leave Italy in a century and a half.

No Details

The announcement today gave no details of the Pope's itinerary. Nor did it say where he would be lodged there.

It was assumed he would spend one night in the old city of Jerusalem, which is occupied

Church Summit Meeting Posed

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — The patriarch of the Eastern Orthodox Church, Athenagoras I, proposed today that a summit meeting of the heads of the major Christian religions be held in Jerusalem next month during Pope Paul's visit there.

by Jordan, and one night in Nazareth, in Israel.

In announcing his trip to the Vatican Ecumenical Council Wednesday, the Pope said he wanted to visit the places where Christ was born, lived and died. All of those shrines are in Jordanian territory except Nazareth.

Christian Unity

The Pope, in his original announcement, tied his trip to Christian unity, saying he would pray for the union of all believers in Christ. Italian newspapers speculated today that he might see Patriarch Athenagoras at Constantinople (Istanbul) in the Holy Land. Athenagoras is titular head of the Orthodox churches.

Many sources here believed the Pope's trip to the East was aimed particularly at the Eastern churches which broke away from Rome in the 11th Century. The dates of the trip are significant.

Jan. 6 is the Feast of the Epiphany, commemorating the presentation of gifts to the infant Jesus by the three Wise Men.

The Pope will therefore be in the Holy Land on this important holiday, but he will avoid becoming involved in a centuries-old dispute with the Orthodox churches concerning Christmas. Orthodox churches celebrate Christmas on Jan. 7. They still use the old Julian calendar and reject the Gregorian calendar, adopted in the 16th Century, as a Roman Catholic invention.

NFO Ready To Resume Price Battle

Sidetracked Briefly By Internal Strife; Holdouts Threatened

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The National Farmers Organization, sidetracked briefly by an internal fight, today was ready to resume its battle for higher prices for farm products. Members of the NFO had been urged to spend the winter strengthening the organization, in preparation for another attempt to secure long-term contracts with processors through a holding action in which farm products are kept off the market.

Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., re-elected Thursday to his ninth term as president of the organization, threatened to call a hold-ing action against processors "before next summer."

The holding action could include hogs, cattle, soybeans and milk, Staley said, but he declined to spell out specific details.

"We want to keep the processors off balance—and the only hope of the American farmer family lies in the success of the NFO," Staley told delegates at the closing session of the national convention. Staley, who silenced a group of rebellious members during the stormy, two-meeting, easily defeated his only challenger for the presidency of the organization founded in 1955.

Staley drew 4,774 votes. Forrester Nave Jr. of Lexington, Mo., received 581. Staley said there were more than 7,000 delegates Epiphany, commemorating the presentation of gifts to the in-

1941 Symbol

The Arizona — symbol of the 1941 Japanese bombing—is the only one of nine battleships attacked still in commission. She is considered commissioned because the crew is still aboard. That is why the flag flies above the sunken vessel.

The Navy does not hold official ceremonies to mark Pearl Harbor Day. But to the men and women on the naval base, and to those on ships in port, Dec. 7 remains its deep significance. Many travel to the memorial independently to pay tribute to the 2,300 sailors, soldiers, Marines and civilians who died in a few nightmare hours.

On this Dec. 7, one thing is different from all anniversary days since the end of World War II.

Brief Tribute

It is the flag at half mast for the first time this Pearl Harbor Day. The hundreds of people who cross the harbor to pay a brief tribute and drop a garland of flowers on the water will remember in their prayers one more young, dead American.

It is for him—a World War II Navy lieutenant who fought in the Pacific—that the flag flies low.

A Bereaved Mrs. Kennedy and Children Leave White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy leaves the White House today in sorrow and bereavement—two weeks almost to the hour, after her husband was slain in Dallas.

Mrs. Kennedy is taking her children from a goldfish bowl existence to the quiet life of a borrowed home on N Street in Georgetown.

Parting Gift

When she moved into the executive mansion on Jan. 20, 1961, Mrs. Kennedy's predecessor, Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, left a parting gift of flowers in every room.

This time, the White House bears the black drapes of mourning in many of the state rooms. They will stay there until day he has granted a commutation, Dec. 22, when the 30-day period of national mourning ends.

Caroline Kennedy, 6, will be coming back every day for a ment and issuing worthless checks. Lewis has been serving a series of consecutive sentences totaling six years. The governor commuted the sentences to a single year, making Lewis eligible for parole under jurisdiction of the division of corrections.

John Jr., 3, will have to find

Reynolds noted that Lewis had had a good conduct record in prison during the last 2 years and that the State Welfare Department recommended the commutation.

The governor also reduced the prison term imposed on John M. Flick, 25, of Madison, who was convicted of forgery. Neenah, Roosevelt and Wilson opened Fox Valley Freshman Basketball League play with victories Thursday.

Neenah tripped defending champion Kimberly, 61 - 51. Roosevelt downed Menasha, 41 - 29 and Wilson edged Madison, 65-62.

Gary Losse fired in 32 points to lead the Neenah win over Kimberly. Losse hit 12 field goals and added eight free throws to lead both teams in scoring. Ken Fries was high for the Papermakers with 19 markers.

Roosevelt jumped off to an early 16-0 lead and cruised to the win over Menasha. The winners had a 41-13 lead after three periods and reserves played the rest of the way without scoring.

Wilson trailed at halftime but came through with 46 points in the last two periods to nudge Madison. Dick Jernagen was the big gun for the winners with 31 points including 23 in the last half. Bruce Kane and Mike McCullum each had 14 for the losers.

UW's Johnson May Play Against Ohio

Bob Rapidly Regaining His Basketball Form

MADISON (AP) — With the football season finally crowded to the sidelines, Bob Johnson has joined the Wisconsin basketball team and may get into Saturday afternoon's game with Ohio University.

The 6-foot-5 Johnson, an end on the football squad, did not play in the Badgers' 88-77 victory over Kent State Monday night. He was with the football team through the Thanksgiving Day game at Minnesota, but has rapidly regained his basketball form this week.

Coach Johnny Erickson would like to have Johnson in peak form for the opening of the Big Ten season in January, when the lanky senior may be in the lineup as a starter.

Not Ready to Start

"We want Johnson ready so he can play at least part of Saturday's game," Erickson said Thursday. "He's not ready to start, nor is he in the shape we'd like to have him be, but he's getting there."

Erickson said he would start against Ohio with the same lineup that beat Kent State. Ken Gustafson and Don Hearden will join Mark Zubor in the front line and Mike O'Melia and Jim Bohan will be in the back court.

Hearden was a guard last season, but Erickson said "he didn't do badly at forward, and we're not going to change the combination that won for us." Erickson also said he was pleased by the play of his sophomores, ubor, Gustafson, Dave Roberts and Ken Barnes, and wants to give them another chance.

Pat Gillick Plays Big Role in Baseball Draft

Dave Garcia May Manage El Paso Team in 1964

BY RALPH MUELLER
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

SAN DIEGO — A former Fox Cities hurler, Pat Gillick, figured prominently in the drafting of another former Foxes hurler.

Gillick helped with the evaluation of scouting reports, including reports on Jim Ray, who became the Houston Colts third selection in this week's draft. Ray spent the last several days of the 1963 season with the Foxes before coming up with a sore arm.

Only in the second month of his job as assistant farm director of the Houston club, Gillick said that Colt scouts Stan Hollmig and Brandy Davis had turned in reports that Ray was "the best pitcher they had seen all season". Unfortunately for the Foxes, the glowing reports were on the basis of what Ray had done at Bluefield in the all-rookie Appalachian League.

Eddie Robinson, the Colt farm director, actually made the selection from the floor.

Strikes Out 78

Ray had accumulated a 5-0 record at Bluefield and had fanned 78 in 50 innings of work. The Michigan-born righthander allowed only 33 hits in the 50 frames and compiled a 2.88 earned run average.

With Fox Cities, Ray made only one start that coming late in the season at Wisconsin Rapids. Rapids knocked him out in the third inning, with the pitcher complaining of soreness in his arm.

An examination by the club physician resulted in some prescribed rest for the hurler and he never did see action again. Ray is currently attending school.

Gillick was more interested in the Colts final selection. The former member of the Foxes, National Basketball Association had done most of the ground work for the selection of Gerry Morawski, a right hander who, had only worked one inning in organized baseball.

In addition to Gillick two other former Fox Cities players are attending the convention in official capacities. Bill Harbour, who performed with the Appleton Papermakers in 1947 and 1948 is now employed as a business manager with the Minnesota Twins organization. Lou Morton, who opened the 1948 season as Appleton's first baseman, is the business manager

Vanden Heuvel's 597 Tops League

LITTLE CHUTE—Gene Vanden Heuvel slammed a 597 series to pace the Fox Valley League at Little Chute Recreation. Hammen's Bar leads the league with a 24-15 record.

Other high scores were hit by Ken Bobber, 589; Vin Jansen, 563, and John Jansen, 559.

Spends 2 Months

Morton, a member of the Philadelphia Phillies organization at that time, spent only two months at Appleton but still vividly recalls the city.

Following the baseball trail, he went into the service and later attended and graduated from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. He spent a year as business manager at Lakeland, Fla., before moving to Kinston.

"We had one of our boys up at Kinston last summer", reported Morton, speaking of Richie Colpaert. Colpaert was a member of the 1962 Foxes aggregation and was drafted into the Pittsburgh Pirate organization a year ago.

Morton went on to say Colpaert threw real hard although compiling only a 5-10 record in 34 relief assignments and four starts. His earned run average was a respectable 3.60.

Numerous other personalities with Wisconsin affiliations are attending the sessions here. John Moss, the current president of the Western Carolina League, is formerly the business manager of the Wausau Muskies.

Another is former area scout for the San Francisco Giants, Dave Garcia, a long-time resident of Oshkosh. Garcia, living in El Cajon (only a short distance from San Diego), has been the Pacific Coast supervisor or scout for the Giants and now appears heading for El Paso as manager in 1964.

Royals Hand Celtics Their Second Loss

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Association dropped their second ball game of the season Thursday, bowing 118-108 to the Cincinnati Royals. And all Cincinnati needed to beat Boston for the second time was 48 points from Oscar Robertson and 21 from Jerry Lucas. Nothing to it.

The defeat trimmed Boston's Eastern Division lead over the Royals to 3½ games and if only Cincinnati could find another NBA team that knew how to beat the Celtics they really might threaten the lead.

Elsewhere in the NBA the mere mortals who perform for St. Louis and Philadelphia also played. St. Louis came out on top, 106-103, as John Barnhill made a key interception and then tossed in the winning basket in the final 34 seconds of play.

Big 10 Adopts Financial Aid Limitation Plan

70 Athletic Scholarships Will Be Maximum

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten, striving for athletic economy in the face of mushrooming educational costs, today began operating on a maximum of 70 sports scholarships — including 36 for football — per school.

The conference leaders Thursday formally adopted the new financial aid limitation plan which undercuts a previous maximum of 80 grants since 1961 and an allowable 100 from 1957 until 1961.

The policy - making faculty representatives allowed a little leeway in year-to-year recruiting for football and basketball. Each school now will be permitted to bank five football and two basketball tenders for one year.

35 The Next Year

This means a school could grant 25 football scholarships one year and 35 the next year. In basketball, the new rule provides six grants per year, but a school could recruit four cagers one year and eight the next year.

For all other sports, each school can issue 34 scholarships but without any specific quotas per sport.

Commissioner Bill Reed conceded the new financial aid economy may not achieve expected results, but said it indicated the need for shooting the gap of varsity sport budget problems.

"At least one school is considering a ticket price increase next football season," said Reed.

"Considering the recent tremendous increases in ticket prices for other forms of public attractions, the college football price still is the best bargain," he added.

The average Big Ten football popularly-priced ticket costs $5.

Skiing Begins at Pine Mountain, Mount Telemark

Artificial snow and sub-freezing temperatures will make possible the opening of the skiing season this weekend at Pine Mountain Lodge at Iron Mountain and Mount Telemark at Cable, Wis.

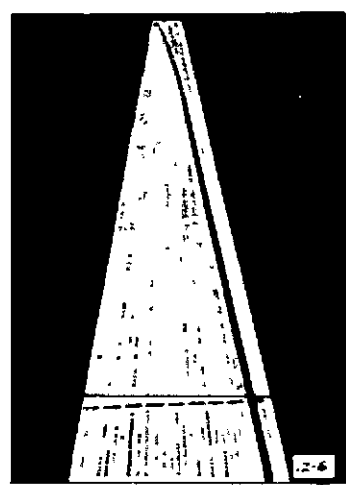

About 10 to 12 inches of artificial snow has been laid down at both hills, and Telemark has received an inch or two of natural snow on top. Pine Mountain is also dedicating its new chalet this weekend.

Bowling Tips

Imaginary Foul Line

It is highly recommended that you keep your shoulders square or parallel to the foul line throughout every first-ball delivery. When you have pins left at the sides of the lane.

you cannot, of course, square up your shoulders to the foul line for you must bowl at a different angle. Thus you must set up an imaginary foul line to stay square to, as illustrated.

Tiger Solid Favorite Over Joey Giardello

Middleweights Clash For World Title Saturday Night

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Dick Tiger, a pressure fighter with intense pride in his role as world middleweight boxing champion, rates a solid favorite to turn back the challenge of confident Joey Giardello in their title match Saturday at Convention Hall.

When Tiger and Giardello split two decisions in 1959, they were eager young contenders for the crown claimed by both Sugar Ray Robinson and Gene Fullmer. Now Tiger is the boss. Having disposed of Fullmer in three matches, he is ready to give Giardello his chance.

"If Tiger wants to fight me, he has to come and get me," Giardello said during the long training siege. Tiger was properly upset.

No Title to Lose

"How do you like that?" The champ asked in his precise sing-song English. "The challenger is telling me how he is going to win my title. As the champion I have a lot to lose. Joey has no title to lose."

The record books show that Tiger beat Giardello, Sept. 30, 1959 in Chicago and lost a decision in a Nov. 4 return bout at Cleveland the same year.

There was talk around town of a 2½-3½ price favoring Tiger. That would mean 3-1 man-to-man if accurate. It shapes up about like that for Tiger is strong, and durable. He never has been knocked off his feet in 63 bouts. His record is 48-12-3. At the age of 34 he appears better than ever.

Giardello, 33, is a veteran of 123 pro fights dating back to

Chiefs' Steadman Says Lions Just Trying to Save Face

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Jack Steadman, general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs, today termed "ridiculous" the comments from Detroit over the fact the Chiefs landed prize quarterback, Pete Beathard of Southern California.

Beathard, the No. 1 draft choice of the Detroit Lions was signed by the Chiefs at a figure Lions' owner William Clay Ford described as "exorbitant and unrealistic." He said Lamar Hunt, owner of the Chiefs, "apparently was prepared to go first cabin all the way."

"This is so unreal, so absolutely misconstrued that it doesn't even deserve an answer," said Steadman when informed of Ford's remark.

"I'd say Detroit is trying to save face for losing a draft choice," he added. "The Detroit ship for Don Klosterman, our management is trying to establish a reason at home why it lost its No. 1 choice."

"We didn't throw our business down the drain in signing him. His contract is very reasonable for the caliber of player he is."

Ford said the Chiefs beat out his club by handing Beathard a bonus in excess of $15,000 for signing: a no-cut contract for more than $20,000 a year; a paid-up insurance policy; a new car and option on shares of stock by a West Coast pay television corporation.

The Lions reportedly went as high as $20,000 in their offer.

"We went after Beathard because of his pro potential," Steadman said. "Like all clubs we're going out to sign our No. 1 draft choice. We were successful, Detroit was not."

"One of the big factors in our signing Beathard was his friendship," he added. "The Detroit ship for Don Klosterman, our management is trying to establish a reason at home why it lost its No. 1 choice."

Jack Paar May Quit NBC at End of Season

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar, the television performer, is threatening to quit the National Broadcasting Co. at the end of the season.

Paar, 47, is reportedly angry because NBC refused to extend his Friday night variety show to 90 minutes.

Paar's program now is preceded by the half-hour show, "Harry's Girls," which is scheduled to leave the air. NBC has said it will be replaced by "That Was the Week That Was," a satirical show.

Paar had predicted to the Boston writer that he was 98 per cent sure of adding the time now used by "Harry's Girls" to his own show.

In a telegram to Cynthia Lowry, Associated Press television writer, Paar said: "Explains Decision."

"It is my decision not to appear on the NBC television schedule for 1964-65 season. This desire is my own and has been expressed to Mr. Kintner (Robert Kintner, NBC presi-

Sherwood Girl Second in Area Baking Contest

SHERWOOD—Miss Kathleen Brantmeier Sherwood, a senior at St. Mary High School, Menasha, has been notified that her entry placed second in the Pyro-tax bake-off at Manitowoc. She was awarded a transistor radio.

Eleanor Roberts, television writer for the Boston Traveler, quoted him as saying he will be leaving at the end of this season. She mentioned that Paar was leaving at the end of the season.

"Upon my release I waive all monies due me under the existing contract in the 1964-65 season."

"I will honor all commitments to sponsors made during this season and they are now informed. I have never had an unpleasant moment with any advertiser or advertising agency, there is no problem of censorship or control with the network involved with this decision. The latest Neilson ratings have our Friday night program as the leader in the time period assigned to us."

"On two different occasions I had been promised a realignment to a more favorable time period. The network has chosen otherwise on both occasions. I must accept their decision, after a seven-year mutually profitable association. I hope that they will now accept mine."

For the Family — This Sunday!

For the Ladies:

An interesting revelation on the art of making one's own Christmas ornaments as does Mrs. Walter Wolf of Appleton. Also disclosure of this week's "Orchid Lady" — a native of Sherwood.

For the Men:

The Army-Navy and Green Bay Packer-Los Angeles Rams football games on Saturday, will provide plenty of gory for such professional writers as Art Daley. Meanwhile, John Paustian and Jim Harp will have much of the local sports scene under exclusive control and Ralph Mueller may have some Major League baseball draft news direct from Los Angeles.

For the Kids:

Eight big pages of full-color comics... when they can get them away from the oldsters.

In "View"

An announcement of the Post-Crescent's second annual Ski School, and news of what to do and what to wear at what ski slopes.

In "Family Weekly"

The first in a series on Presidential contenders for '64, reviews and previews the women in the life of Nelson Rockefeller.

'The Burning' Lacks Spark, Says Critic

BY WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP) — Strange violence in France 600 years ago is the dramatic purpose of "The Burning," which arrived Tuesday night at the off-Broadway York Theater. In different version it was tested previously in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Washington and on Dec. 19 in Karlsruhe, Germany.

Although playwright Wallace Hamilton first became intrigued with its bizarre subject matter while a student at Harvard in 1941, the work is only moderately successful in this presentation. Some of the characters are as disheveled as the Black Creek School at 8:15 p.m. burlap rag costumes. Few of the players seem equal to their tasks. The story centers upon a group of lepers who are the victims of secular and religious ed.

Longer Lasting Medication for Painless Home Treatment of Hemorrhoids

M.P.O. combines fast-acting ingredients in a prescription-type formula to relieve pain and itch-shrink piles. Doctors have reported: "We are quite pleased with the results." In recent clinical tests of Menthonolatum M.P.O., results were good to excellent for 25 out of 30 patients. Relief starts in seconds—M.P.O. contains more medicated ointment than the leading hemorrhoid preparation. And M.P.O. is homogenized for faster absorption of its relieving medication. The instant you apply M.P.O., its anesthetic (Benzocaine) and vasoconstrictor (Ephedrine Sulfate) start to work to relieve pain, stop embarrassing itching and promote shrinking. Longer lasting relief—because M.P.O.'s formula has an exclusive stabilized base, the medication is concentrated on the inflamed tissue to keep on working. And it includes Hexachlorophene, the famous germ killer, to relieve bacteria-caused itching and fight possible infection. Get Menthonolatum M.P.O. today. Sold without prescription at all drug counters. M.P.O. is available in stainless ointment or suppository form.

Three Animals, a Labrador retriever, a Siamese cat and a bull terrier, are the stars of the Walt Disney color movie currently playing at the Viking Theater in Appleton and the Rauli Theater in Oshkosh. "The Incredible Journey" is an exciting adventure story of the three pets that travel 250 miles across the Canadian wilderness to return to their home. Co-feature is another Disney film, "Yellowstone Cubs."

'Great Showman' Apt Title for C. B. DeMille

BY BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Tele-played himself in "Sunset Boulevard," which lately has seemed eard with Gloria Swanson. He intent on interring the movie was excellent—as is John Huston before its time, came ton in his first outing as an up with a special on the late actor in the current "The Car-Cecili B. Hackett's luminous performance as a determined nun, it would be just another haloed shoot-em-up.

7:30 - 8:30 (Channel 11) — There are more nutty characters in "Who Killed Purity Mather?" on Burke's Law than you'll find in a raft of psychiatric shows, but they are all delights.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 2) — Route 66 goes north of the border to Toronto for a zany comedy about five stranded girl musicians, a dashing Britisher who savors the thought of having the girls indebted to him, and of course, our heroes, Tod and Linc (Martin Milner and Glenn Corbett).

8:30-9 (Channel 4-5) — Now that Harry's Girls is going off, it's improving. Larry Blyden and company get mixed up with Dick Emery, a once-famous music hall celebrity who stabbed so many backs when he was a star no one is sorry to see him as a "bunker."

8:30-9 (Channel 2) — The Twi-light Zone will delight the show's devotees. "The 7th Is Made Up Of Phantoms" is a Rod Serling script which sends the mechanized National Guardsmen on maneuvers in the terri-where Custer made his last stand.

9-10 (Channel 2) — The Al-ber and Laurie Anderson will fred Hitchcock Hour starts with Chris Robinson, James Gregory Williams' "The Dream of O-Noman Fell planning an or-wen."

7:30-8:30 (Channel 4-5) — "The Candidate" on Bob Hope Presents is a powerful character study of an unsure, frightened man. Milton Berle, in an acting tour de force, acquires himself nobly. He appears as a campaign manager desperate to win a gubernatorial nomination for his man. (Color)

6:30-7:30 (Channel 11) — Even if the solution of 77 Sunset Strip is trite, the script has some good moments for passable viewing. Efrem Zimbalist Jr. is hired by Russell Johnson, who says he has seen his wife (Patricia Crowley), at a poker game in a hotel. She denies this and Johnson wants to know whether he is losing his mind.

Neenah High Symphony to Give Concert

Sunday Performance Preview of Program Slated for Chicago

A program ranging from "Jammie in Jamaica" to Saint-Saens' "Allegro Apassionato" will display a spectrum of musical color by 101 young musicians Sunday night when the Neenah High School Symphony Orchestra appears in concert in the school gymnasium. Concert time is 7:30 p.m. This "home town" concert will serve as a performance preview for the orchestra since they are pre-senting the same program Dec. 18 at the Midwest National Band Clinic at the Sherman House in Chicago. Robert Gruetzman is the director of the orchestra. Julie Gibson will be the 'cello soloist for the Saint-Saens number. Fred Hitchcock Hour starts with Chris Robinson, James Gregory Williams' "The Dream of O-Noman Fell planning an or-wen."

Featured Violinists
Several violinists will be fea-sure they steal turns out to have used in the "Concerto in D for Solo Violins" by Antonia Vivaldi-Frederick Muller's "Fiddle". The student violinists include number.

Linda Schubert, Kathy Angermeyer, Marshall Hanke, Patricia Schroeder, Robert Braun, Janice Bloch, Alice Dunwiddie, Sandy Fisher, Roberta Roberts, Richard Moen, William Casper, James Croxson, Marjorie Bland, Julie Heaton, Ronald Pederson, Frances Brehm, Maria Ross, Donna Schmidt, Lynn Austin and John Rausch.

Jack Congdon will be the guest conductor for the excerpts from Alexander Borodin's "Prince Igor."

Another student soloist in the program will be bassoonist Laurie Fyvie in "Concert Piece for Bassoon and Strings" by Burrill Phillips.

Selections From Musical
Orchestra members will present such favorites as "Hey, Look Me Over," "Give Me a Little Whistle" and "El Sombrero" in their highlights from the musical "Wildcat" by Leigh and Coleman.

Other numbers on the program include Orien Dailey's "Concerto for Orchestra," Hay-dyn's first and second move-ments from "Symphony XV in B Flat," the overture from Graun's "Frederick the Great," and two selections from Frank Losser's music on the life of Hans Christian Andersen, "Wonderful Copenhagen" and "Anywhere I Wander."

Another contrast of pace and selection will be heard in J. di. The student violinists include number.

Stock Market Rally Wilting

Brokers See No Reason for Change In Upward Trend

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rally wilted today as slipped.
The averages spurted to all-time highs Thursday.
Trading was heavy and in the first hour the ticker tape trailed floor transactions.
Brokers said they saw no real reason for an abatement of the upward trend.
Opening of trading in RCA, which split its stock 3-for-1 and increased the dividend, was delayed because of an accumulation of orders. The stock opened unchanged at 99 3/4 on a block of 35,000 shares and later showed a loss of a point.
Changes of key issues were mainly fractional.
The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon was unchanged at 263.9 with industrials up .2, rails up .1 and utilities off .2.
The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was off 1.09 to 762.77.
Xerox, which lost 14 points Thursday, recovered more than 6.
U.S. Steel and Jones & Laughlin lost about a half a point. General Motors dropped around a point and Ford and Chrysler were off 1/2.
IBM advanced 2 points and Union Carbide was ahead almost 2.
AT&T fell about a point. Du Pont dipped a minor fraction.
Among the oils, Jersey Standard and Standard Oil (Indiana) declined about a half a point while Texaco and Royal Dutch were down by lesser fractions.
Pan American World Airways lost a point and United Air Lines added half a point.
Prices on the American Stock Exchange were mostly unchanged.
Corporate bonds were mixed and governments were mostly unchanged.

POTPOURRI — 'Tis often said that one Ole Evinrude got the idea for an outboard motor when he was rowing across a lake to get an ice cream cone for his wife, and that, hence, he was the inventor of the outboard motor boat.

Not so.

The first patent for the outboard motor was issued in April, 1907, to C. B. Waterman of Detroit, Mich., and, indeed, it was Waterman, too, who chose the word "outboard" to describe the motor. At any rate, Waterman produced 3,000 of the motors in the year 1906.

Evinrude, now generally credited with being the inventor, did not get a patent on his engine until Aug. 22, 1911 — four years behind Waterman and several years behind other inventors.

House like the American Motor Company of New York (1896) and Gottlieb Daimler (1893).

The splendid beer slogan of Schlitz Brewing Company — "The beer that made Milwaukee famous" — was not used first by Schlitz although the exact terminology may have been.

The fact is that the Pabst Brewing Co., also of Milwaukee, used a similar advertisement slogan earlier. The exact one did not say it. All those phrase used by Pabst was, jokes and predictions which are Milwaukee beer is famous. Credited to a man named Con-Pabst has made it so. Pabst fucus really were not uttered.

by a man by that name. They are word-wisdoms of K'ung Fu-tse—the same feller.

"Confucius" is the same man, though. It's just a Latinized version of the name of the old philosopher.

We make mistakes on Oriental monickers, the truth is that Chinese surnames are properly written first and the first name written last.

In the familiar name, Sun Yat-sen, "Sun" is the last name and the "Yat-sen" would be the first name.

And if you have trouble deciding which is a Chinese name and which is a Japanese name, just recall that most Chinese surnames have but one syllable and that Japanese have two or more, like Basatsu Motonobu Ishibashi, Hatoyama.

Chinese names, mostly of one syllable, are like Hsun, Mo, Sun, Hung, Ming, Zen, Shan, Tai, Po, Fu, Yu, Kang, etc.

The international distress call for radio telephony is, as you know, SOS, but it doesn't mean "Save Our Ship," "Save Our Souls," or "Stop Other Signals." The letters were chosen because of their simplicity—three dots, three dashes and three dots in Morse code.

It was adopted in 1906 to replace the previous distress call, CQD, and by 1912, SOS was used exclusively for the official international radio signal for distress.

Now, the international distress call for radio telephony is "Mayday, Mayday," but it doesn't mean that the weather is pleasant and summery. The call approximates the English version of the French phrase, "M'aidez" which means "help me." The term was chosen by the International Radio Telegraph convention in Washington, D.C., in 1927.

Favorable Reaction

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Information Agency made public Thursday a survey showing highly favorable foreign press reaction to President Johnson in his first days in the White House.

The survey, based on material available as of Dec. 2, said a general feeling of confidence in Johnson is expressed by the world press.

$2.9 Billion in Taxes Collected For Fiscal Year

U. S., State, Local Revenues Included, Alliance Reports

MADISON (AP) — Federal, state and local governments collected or levied taxes of $2.9 billion in Wisconsin during the fiscal year which ended June 30, according to the Wisconsin Taxpayers Alliance.

Total collections were $229 million more than for the previous year, the research organization said.

In its December bulletin, the Alliance noted that during the 14-year period from 1950 to 1963 state and local collections rose from $406.1 million to nearly $1.1 billion, an increase of 162 per cent.

For the same period, the full value of taxable property set by the state increased 132 per cent and the amount of personal income of Wisconsin residents rose 87 per cent.

Steady Increases

The Alliance is a nonpolitical research organization which studies problems and services of government.

The nearly $1.1 billion collected in state and local taxes during the 1963 fiscal year was $101 million more than for the previous year, the Alliance added.

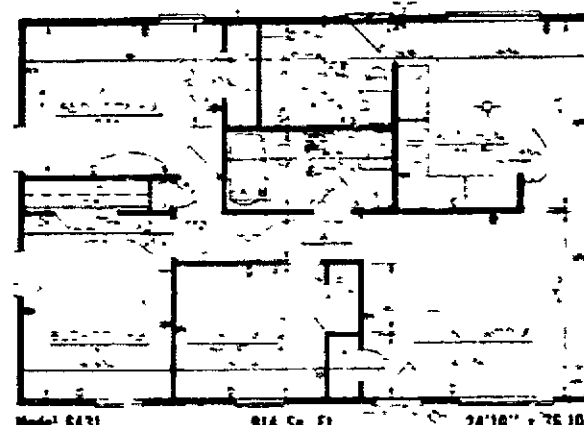

Property taxes still were the largest source of state and local revenue for 1963, accounting for $556.7 million of total collections. The Alliance noted that $90.4 million of the property tax levy was paid by the state.

Friday, December 6, 1963 Appleton Post-Crescent B16
State individual and corporate income taxes accounted for $202.2 million of total collections, an increase of $94 million over the previous year. Wisconsin increased by $128 million in 1963 to $1.8 billion. Federal taxes collected in seven per cent boost over 1962.

'Alice' Contest Plans Already Being Made*Tentative Dates Set For Regional, Final Competition Events

One place where the song title "June in January" has a great deal of meaning is in the offices of the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture in Madison.

Planning is already underway for the 1964 "Alice in Dairyland" competition. By the time the new year arrives preliminary work on the search for the state's 17th "Alice" will be completed.

The first step in the department's program will be to find sites for the contests. Bids by communities for the regional and final competition will be accepted beginning December 5. Cities which have already played host to a regional contest are eligible to bid for the finals.

Tentative dates have been set. The 10 regional contests have been slated for the Saturdays in May with the finals scheduled for June 11, 12, and 13. Regional competition is a one-day event at which two girls are selected to compete in the finals.

Supervisors Tour Farms In Calumet

CHILTON — Evaluation of soil and water conservation projects in Calumet County by supervisors of the county soil and water conservation district was made last week during an inspection tour.

Among the farms visited were Donald Schwobe, Charlestown; Alex Woelfel Jr., New Holstein; Ronald Loose, Rantoul; Joe Smett, Harrison; Victor Erdmann, Charlestown; Harold Moehn, Stockbridge; Ernie Franzen, Stockbridge; Elmer Pilling, Stockbridge; Francis Schneider, Harrison; Roman Broehm, Harrison; Ed Puetz, Stockbridge, and John Klotz, Stockbridge.

The supervisors viewed several conservation practices such as strip cropping, ditching, erosion control, woodland areas, rural recreational facilities and farm ponds.

Supervisors making the tour were Oscar Kossman, Carl Peik and Ray Rusch, Orrin Meyer, Calumet County agent, and Bruno Zucollo, soil conservationist, accompanied them.

Cattle Sales Results*Outagamie DHIA to Meet at Black Creek

The Outagamie County Central Dairy Herd Improvement Association will hold its annual cooperative meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Black Creek Community Hall.

The program will feature a discussion of the Northeastern Wisconsin graded dairy cattle sales with Kenneth Pessig, Badger Breeders Cooperative.

Workers and Wonders 4-H Members Get Achievement Awards

The Workers and Wonders 4-H Club held its achievement night at its November meeting. The club is a gold seal winner.

Member specialty awards went to Cynthia and Darrell Helms, poultry; John Koepfel, horses; Barbara Helms, health; Jayne Mueller, bees, and Christine Stellmacher, home grounds. Receiving honorable mention were Beverly and Jayne Mueller, gardening; John Koepfel, dogs; Beverly Mueller and Darlene Koepfel, food and nutrition; Christine Stellmacher, child care, and Charles Stellmacher, swine.

Roger Helms graduated to leader.

The next meeting will be the club's Christmas party.

summarizing the two sales held Aug. 10 and Oct. 26. The Outagamie DHIA joined five other groups for the sales.

There also will be director elections, annual and fieldmen's reports and a financial statement.

Ellington 4-H Club Planning Yule Party And Gift Exchange

The Ellington 4-H club met Wednesday at the Ellington Town Hall with the new president, Patricia Kaddatz, presiding.

Gloria Jeske reported on the County Junior Leaders meeting, and reminded members of coming events. Mrs. Kaddatz reported on the leaders meeting. Slides were shown on a tour taken around central Wisconsin by four club members. The tour was a state conservation award.

Names were exchanged for the Christmas party on Dec. 30. The committees are program.

Mrs. Kaddatz, Bonnie Beyer and Marianne Zerbe, decorating; Gloria Jeske, Joan Yogerst, Charlene and Marcel VanCamp, and entertainment. Patricia Kaddatz, Barbara Beyer, Ed Larson and Jeanette Delzer.

OYF Winners To Be Honored*Presentation of State Awards at Banquet Feb. 15

Recognition Night for local chapter winners of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Young Farmer contest will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 15 in the Conway Motor Hotel.

Jerry Long, chairman of the Wisconsin Jaycee OYF Committee, said state awards will be presented at the Appleton banquet to the state's three top young farmers. The top winner will be awarded an all-expense trip to Madison April 12-14 for the OYF National contest.

Judging at all levels will be based on progress in farming, soil and natural resource conservation practices and personal efforts toward community betterment.

Deer Registrations Up At Fremont Station

Modern Computers Used to Compile Area Farm Records*Electronic Data Processing Keeps Tabs on Expenditures

BY TOM RICHARDS
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Modern electronic data processing equipment would not be of much value to the average farmer, most people would say. But that's not the case, as is being proven by the Fox Valley Farm Management Association working with the University of Wisconsin.

Walter Klanderman, association field man, said IBM machinery is being used to help in the financial records of about 10 per cent of the association's 210 members in Outagamie, Brown, Calumet, Winnebago and Fond du Lac counties.

Under the system, every time a farmer makes a transaction, the information is forwarded to the University at Madison, where it is "translated" into language the machine can understand—holes punched into cards.

From these cards, the electronic giants compute and print monthly reports. Copies are sent to Klanderman, the farmer and agricultural research departments of the university.

Makes Reports
The farmer uses the reports to determine his progress—or lack of it—Klanderman keeps his copy on file for tax purposes, and the university uses the data for agricultural studies.

At the end of the year, the machine makes reports for the three, which the farmer, again, uses as a gauge, the university for more research and Klanderman uses to compute state and federal income taxes.

Included in the final reports for the year are a depreciation record, crop production record and a farm business analysis.

The depreciation record aids in filing tax forms, the production record shows which crops made the most money for the farmer, and the farm business analysis helps the farmer to decide what changes to make to increase profits.

Use Record Books
The business report also contains figures from the preceding year which show the farmer the effect management changes have had on his operation. Eventually, Klanderman said, it is the hope of the association and the university to have the matters of all members of the association handled by the electronic devices.

At present, the other 90 per cent use a detailed and complete set of record books to compile the same data. They are, however, far ahead of the farmer who does not use this or a similar system, Klanderman said.

To the rest of the members the university, through the association, furnishes a series of record books and forms to aid in keeping tabs on financial activity.

In the farm account and record book, for instance, there are a yearly summary, net worth form, crop production record, inventories, spaces for farm receipts and expenses, feed use record, personal expenses, debt payment record, produce used at home, how to estimate grain, hay and silage, end of the year check, and a farm map form.

To Compute Taxes
Another book is a six-year inventory and depreciation schedule. This allows the farmer to keep track of his depreciation accurately over a six-year period.

Figures taken from these books are used by Klanderman at the end of the year to compute taxes and complete forms for filing.

Dues for membership in the Fox Valley Farm Management Association, which include the income tax services, range from $40. for farms less than 60 acres, to $75 for operations larger than 300 acres.

Northport 4-H Members Get Awards, Pins

NORTHPORT—Hilltopper 4-H Club members Tuesday received pins and awards when they met at the home of Mrs. Simon Wilson, leader.

Bursa Inflammation Is Called Bursitis

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. a half tablets. I felt more relaxed and my facial appearance about bursitis. I have it in my, was better.

My friends have different opinions about how it should be treated. Some say it can be cured by exercise, some say an operation is necessary, and still others recommend shots.

Exercise is not the answer, as it merely keeps the tender place irritated. Rest, however, often permits healing. Various injections are used when needed. Sometimes excess fluid is withdrawn. Why not let your doctor treat the bursitis, instead of relying on friends, some of whom have given you incorrect advice?

Dear Dr. Molner: I had an overactive thyroid gland. I think the doctors destroyed it completely when they gave me radioactive iodine in a glass of orange juice.

Of course their intention was only partial destruction. Now I take three tablets of thyroid extract a day. In my own estimation, I was feeling better when taking only one and

Is it possible that my gland was not completely destroyed after all? Is the blood test I had for thyroid index absolutely infallible?

Let's get over the idea that any laboratory finding is absolutely infallible. To be sure, plenty of tests are not to be doubted. A blood count is low, or high. Or an unwelcome organism is found. Or your temperature is 98.6 or it is 102. You don't doubt these findings.

Plenty of other tests show that you are "a little high," or "a little low," but they don't mean that half way in between is "right."

Your thyroid gland may not have been destroyed.

The radioactive iodine reduced its size and overactivity, which in your case was necessary. After that the extract was used to adjust your thyroid activity to whatever level is right for you. Tell your doctor that you feel that you are too tense. That's what he wants to know from you. He'll say, "Well, then, let's try a little less for a few weeks and see how it works."

That's the same way of practicing medicine. No two people are exactly alike. The laboratory gives us a sensible working point. From that, we adjust to suit the patient's needs.

Dear Dr. Molner: I have all ways worn earrings with no trouble but in the last year or so if I wear them even for a day my ears itch and turn red. I recently bought both gold and silver ones, and it still happens. What do you think?

MRS. B. W. It may be "contact dermatitis"—a skin trouble from contact with something or other. In this case, various metals are a form of allergy.

We never—I think I can be changing to a different metal that positive—have an allergic, sometimes helps. Sometimes reaction from our first contact; jewelry can be lacquered so the metal does not come in direct contact with the skin, which is especially applicable to earrings. Pads of foam rubber are also available to protect you from the metal.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is a diaphragm 100 per cent safe in preventing pregnancy? No, but properly used, it comes closest to that percentage.

Rancher Held as Cattle Rustler

WISCONSIN RAPIDS (AP)—Robert Nichols, 26-year-old Ne-koosa cattle rancher, has been ordered held under $5,000 bond in Adams County on a charge of stealing domestic animals. Sheriff Frank Series said that Nichols, who operates an 840-acre cattle ranch in Adams County, was arrested with a truck carrying six beef cattle which did not belong to him. Series said Nichols contended he picked up the cattle which were at large and had wandered into one of his pastures.

Dairy Industry Price Supports May be Continued Indefinitely

There is little likelihood that we will eat our way out of the dairy surplus in the foreseeable future, according to a trio of agricultural economists from three leading land grant universities in this country. The capacity of the nation's dairy farmers to produce milk will continue to equal any growth in commercial markets at home and abroad the economists add. Therefore there is no basis to predict that conditions which have prompted national dairy support programs will disappear in the future. As a result most national programs that directly affect the dairy industry are likely to be continued, although important modifications may be made in some programs. Also some type of continuing purchase and storage program will undoubtedly continue to be necessary.

Agricultural economists Truman Graf, University of Wisconsin; Glynn McBride, Michigan State University; and Robert Story, Cornell University, have published their views on dairy production and dairy price policy in a special report just issued, and entitled "An Investigation of the Dairy Problem and Analysis of Selected Program Alternatives." Robert Jacobson, of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, acted as a consultant to the group.

Economic Conditions
The report covers economic conditions in the dairy industry contributing to the dairy problem, traces government attempts in the past to cope with it, and discusses alternatives for government action in the future.

Milk Production
The economists introduce their report by pointing to, "a chronic problem of low incomes apparent on many dairy farms." They point out that in 1961, net incomes for seven groups of commercial dairy farms in different parts of the country averaged nearly $2,500 less than the average annual wages of $4,802 for factory workers. The income problem on dairy farms is concentrated among the smaller farms—which, in general, have not made many adjustments to the rapid advance that has occurred in science and technology.

Cost Increases
The increase in the cost of these purchases has precipitated attempts to develop alternative dairy price and income programs. Closely related to the problem of rising support costs are the growing problems of storage and use of government-purchased products.

The economists discuss six major types of government program alternatives in the report. These are (1) continuation or modification of the present purchase and storage program, (2) mandatory national supply management programs, (3) voluntary supply-adjustment programs, (4) Class I base programs in federal milk order markets, (5) composite of Class I base and voluntary supply adjustment programs, and (6) direct payment butterfat subsidy program.

They predict total marketings, commercial demand, commodity credit purchases, net program costs, and gross and net dairy farm income under each of the alternatives. They also point out advantages and disadvantages of each program to the industry and to the nation.

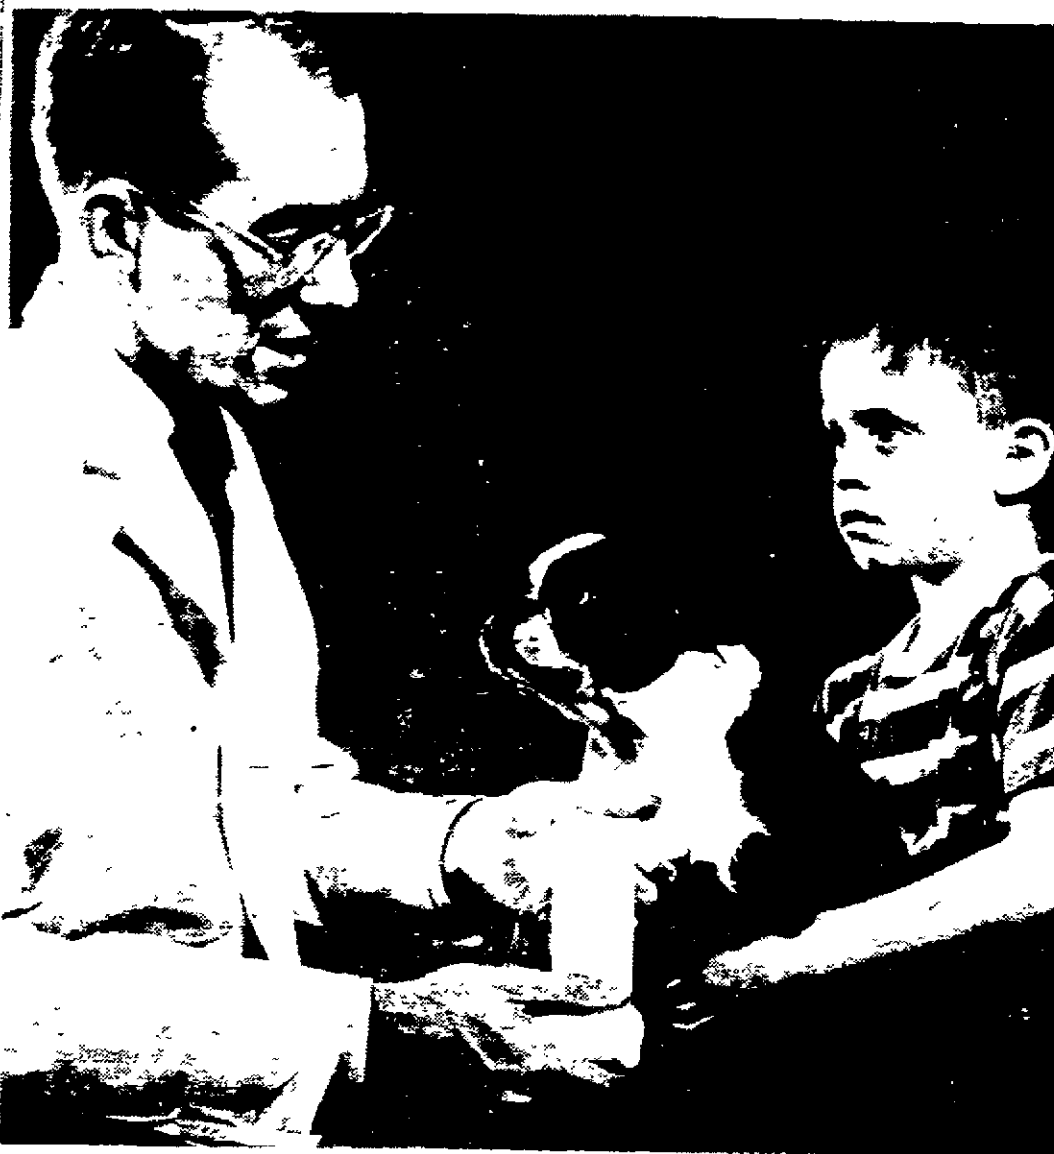

For copies of the complete report write to the Department of Agricultural Economics at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

JOHN DEERE "33" DAIRY SPREADER

The low profile, the big capacity, and the clean design of the John Deere 33 Dairy Spreader is just what you have been looking for ... and its low cost will please you.

With 20-inch wheels, the 33 spreader is only 47 inches high ... extra low for use with a barn cleaner. The 52 inch width makes it easier and faster to fill the 33 Spreader with an overhead track manure conveyor. You save time anyway you handle manure.

The 33 Spreader has a combination beater-wide-spread with aggressive diamond-shaped teeth welded to the outer edge of right and left turning spirals. These teeth pull the manure inward and upward so there's no building up or packing in wet or freezing weather.

This 139 bushel spreader is completely PTO powered. It can be unloaded standing still if you prefer to stack your manure instead of spreading during the winter.

Tariff Raises May Not End U. S. Chicken War

BY SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Washington's tit-for-tat boosting of some duties on European goods could prove to be only another skirmish rather than the heralded end of the "chicken war."

The whole field of tariff maneuvering is involved and the broader contest is about to start.

Or it could be just the innocent bystander, the American consumer, who gets hit.

There is a chance that, if the higher duties finally are allowed to stick, it could mean more of a drain on the pocketbooks of some American consumers through higher prices than a blow at the makers of French cognac, German trucks and Dutch potato starch.

Loss Claimed

That is because the French brandy producers especially are convinced that the American who fancies their product will pay the higher price resulting from the increased tariff. And French exports will continue in about the same volume.

Whether the German truck makers and Dutch producers of potato starch will find as devoted customers, or will lower prices, or seek other markets is yet to be determined. But some sort of continued skirmishing, perhaps retaliation, seems likely.

The chicken war itself started a year ago when the European Common Market boosted its tariffs on frozen chicken so high as to cut off most of the fast-growing market for American poultrymen.

French Brandy

The United States claimed a loss of $46 million a year. An arbitration board recently decided the loss was $26 million. Now Washington is raising tariffs on the selected European items that have an import value of relatively that sum.

France, Germany and the Netherlands, where American poultry was particularly popular, were selected as prime targets. Smaller losses are supposed to be felt by the other three members of the Common Market, Italy, Belgium and Luxembourg.

The Common Market is now expected to renew its offer to cut poultry duties by 1.3 cents a pound, a sum Washington has rejected as trifling.

But more important perhaps is the squaring off of the opponents before the start in a few months of a new round of tariff negotiations. The United States had hoped for a big tariff-cutting session, of the 53-nation General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Woodlawn 4-H Holds Achievement Night

Woodlawn 4-H Club held achievement night recently in Grand Chute town hall.

Fair checks and pins were distributed, and officers were elected. They include Chuck Gross, president; John Baum, vice president; Jeanne Evilsizor, secretary; Donna Evilsizor, treasurer; Diane Lecker, reporter; Kurt Paltzer and Diane Evilsizor, sergeants-at-arms.

Training Set For Outagamie ASC Delegates

60 Committeemen Expected to Attend Greenville Meeting

An orientation and training meeting for the 60 Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation community committeemen selected recently in Outagamie County has been set for 7:30 p.m. Dec. 12 at the Silver Dome, Greenville.

Purpose of the session, according to Joseph Rucker, county ASC office manager, is to outline to the men their duties and responsibilities to the ASC program. They also will be given recognition for being elected in their respective communities at a dinner before the business session. Wives of the committeemen also will attend.

Participating in the orientation program will be Bert Weyenberg, county committee chairman; Weldon Huss, vice chairman; John Reimer, regular committeeman; Russell Luckow, county home development agent; Vern Geiger, Soil Conservation Service representative; Milo Singler, area farmer-fieldman for the state ASC; Ralph Gehring, a member of the state ASC, and Rickert.

Wisconsin Holstein Is Grand Champion Of Livestock Show

CHICAGO (AP)—Harvey A. Nelson & Sons of Union Grove, Wis., won the Holstein grand champion on Gray View Crisscross at the International Live Stock Exposition Thursday.

A number of animals from Wisconsin's Green County made a near sweep of the Brown Swiss show at the exposition. Howard and Jake Voegeli of Monticello were judged the premier exhibitors.

Mrs. Louis Maythaler, owner of Cold Springs Farm at Monroe, made her first major show a big one. One of her entries took the grand champion female award.

Attention, farm wives

Finance this automatic washer with PCA... and take your husband out to dinner with the money you save!

Here's a way for you cost-conscious farm wives to really save money on any of the appliances you buy.

Finance them through PCA just like your husband finances your farm production loans!

PCA charges only simple interest... which is a lot less than most installment plans (You actually pay as high as 22% interest on some "buy now, pay later" plans!) With PCA you save big money... even on relatively small purchases for your farm.

And remember, PCA lends money on everything you need for your farm home from big remodeling jobs to furniture for the living room.

Just add your purchases to your husband's production loan or stop in at your PCA office and make a new loan application.

Hay Falling From Truck Is Negligence on Driver's Part

"Watch out for those bales of slamming on his brakes. How hay," shouted Judy. Three bales of hay had fallen from an approaching truck, right in the path of the car in which Judy was riding. John, the driver of the car, attempted to avoid hitting the bales by ever, the car slid onto the shoulder of the road and overturned. Judy was injured.

Judy sued the owner and driver of the truck, claiming that the driver of the car, attempted to avoid hitting the bales by

"What does she mean, I'm to blame," said the truck driver. "Those bales were chained down and then tied securely with a rope. I just inspected the load a few miles back. How can I be at fault?"

"I don't care what he did to those bales of hay," said Judy. "They fell off his truck right in front of us. How could they have been so well tied down and still fall off?"

Judy's Favor

The jury decided in favor of Judy, and the truck driver appealed to the supreme court.

The supreme court ruled in favor of Judy. They pointed out that she had established a basic case of negligence on the part of the truck driver by proving that the bales of hay had fallen from the truck into the path of the car in which she was riding. The truck driver's evidence as to the manner in which the hay was loaded, tied down, transported, and inspected, although uncontradicted, did not have the effect of destroying Judy's case.

The court said that it was reasonable for the jury to find that bales of hay would not ordinarily fall from a truck traveling on a public highway if those in charge had used the required care in loading, securing and transporting the hay. The nature and character of the occurrence bespeaks negligence. Judy won the case.

Senior High PTA Group Hears Reading Program Talks at Clintonville

CLINTONVILLE — An explanation of the senior high school's honors reading program was given Wednesday night at a meeting of the senior high PTA in the Little Theater of the school.

Explaining the program were Miss Joan Paulson, English department chairman; Mrs. Robert Billings, school librarian; and students, Martha Miller, William Melzer and Gerald Shepard.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Dennis Crowe, chairman, Mrs. E. L. Sisson, Mrs. Florian Felts and Mrs. Gary Krubsack.

Clintonville Event

Nominations Open for Young Farmer Award

CLINTONVILLE—The second Judges will be named in the annual Outstanding Young Farmer Award in the area will be presented in February by the Clintonville Jaycees at the Farm Institute. Nominations will be accepted until Dec. 20.

The winner and four other finalists will be honored at a Jaycee distinguished service award banquet Jan. 25.

In addition to a plaque, certificate and a cash prize from the Jaycees, the winner and his wife also will be guests of honor at the state convention in Appleton Feb. 15 and the state winner will receive further recognition at the national convention in Madison May 16.

Any farmer between the ages of 21 and 35 is eligible. Residents of the area can nominate any number of farmers in this age group, according to Hilbert Wunsch, chairman of the award committee.

The Jaycees will compile information on all candidates and submit it to a panel of judges. Selection will be based on career progress, conservation practices and service to community.

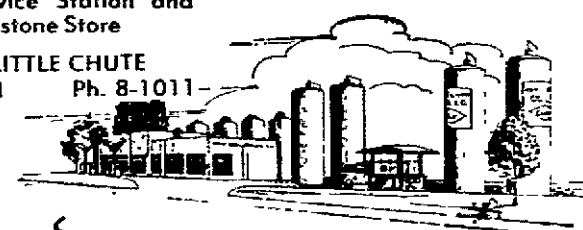

Winner of the 1962 award was Glenn Tellock, route 1, Bear Creek. Other finalists were Herman Yaeger, route 3; the Peters brothers, Orlin and Marlin, route 1; Ordelle Behnke, route 1, and Lawrence Dahl, Big Falls.

Gary Below is chairman of the Association of Commerce sponsored Farm Institute where the winner will be announced.

4-H Clubs May Be Organized At Any Time

Youth Furnished Aid Through Their County Extension

BY COURTNEY SCHWERTZ
Outagamie County 4-H Club Agent

We have received inquiries regarding when new 4-H clubs may be organized or—when is the best time?

In Outagamie County, we help community groups organize 4-H clubs whenever they wish.

However, since most continuing clubs are now in the process of also starting their new year, new clubs can also participate in most of the activities for the coming year.

New clubs are organized where five or more young people between the ages of 9 and 19 are interested in the program.

along with adults who are willing to devote some time to 4-H leadership and the guidance of young people.

Answer Requests

We will meet with any group that requests help in the organization of a club. Please call our office in the Court House in Appleton and we will be extremely happy to help.

The period after record books have been completed in 4-H club work offers an ideal opportunity for members to work over photography files and get set for the coming year.

Photography has become such an important method of reporting that nearly every Wisconsin member needs an organized picture and negative file. But not all photos used in record books deserve a place in your files. Only those that tell a clear story and have good technical quality should be filed.

News Stories

Photos and negatives of good technical quality will show detail in all areas that are important to the story. White areas on prints should show some detail, such as light shadows or wrinkles. Dark areas such as black clothing will show some texture and detail in a high quality print.

Negatives of good quality will show detail in all important areas, but the detail will be the reverse of your prints.

You can learn a lot about photography by looking through your 1963 record book and those of your friends. You are likely to find that the best half of the photos used would have told the story faster and as complete. A good suggestion is that you file no more than this best half.

Fox River Foxes 4-H Gets New Members

The Fox River Foxes 4-H Club received four new members at its November meeting.

Apiary Inspections Reveal Disease Threat

Although Wisconsin honeybees are serious to the beginning of the season, these two diseases produced a crop of over 20 million pounds of honey during 1963. Beekeepers still have a problem with disease among their colonies here in Wisconsin, as shown by the inspection summary released today, by the State Department of Agriculture.

As of October 15, a total of 27,189 colonies of bees were inspected in a total of 2,684 bee yards. Out of this number, 187 yards were found infected with 1 or more American foulbrood colonies, making a total of 662 colonies found infected and destroyed.

In addition, 219 colonies were found infected with European foulbrood and 6 colonies with funds for apiary inspection work.

FBI Assassination Findings in Hands Of Justice Bureau

Warren Commission to Ask Congress for Subpoena Powers

WASHINGTON (AP) — There were strong indications today that the FBI has completed its bulky report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy without closing its wide-ranging investigation.

It was learned—although official spokesmen steadfastly refused comment—that the report has been turned over to the Justice Department and Deputy Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach. The department will forward it to President Johnson shortly.

The President in turn is expected to transmit the report to the review commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Commission in Session

The Warren commission meets this afternoon. Whether it was to receive the report then was not known in advance.

The FBI is understood to have concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, ex-Marine and Marxist, planned and executed alone the Nov. 22 slaying in Dallas.

Warren has given his implicit assurance that the bipartisan body will reach beyond the official findings, if need be, to clear up any questions that the FBI and six cooperating agencies have not answered to the commission's satisfaction.

Warren announced Thursday, after a 2½-hour commission meeting that Congress will be asked to arm the group with subpoena power.

Congress is sure to respond quickly; legislation already is being drafted. Machinery was in motion also to equip the commission with staff aides, offices and operating procedures.

Extensive Powers

The Warren group has full authority, under Johnson's executive order of last Friday, to go beyond the report and make a mere evaluation of the FBI and other findings. The order empowers it to "conduct any further investigation it deems desirable."

Whether hearings will be held was not decided. Warren told reporters that none of the procedural questions had been settled finally.

Still to be resolved also was the question whether the White House will make public the FBI report before or after the commission studies and evaluates it.

Johnson promised that the findings would be made public in full, but did not say when, and White House press officers have been vague on the question.

Warren told newsmen after Thursday's meeting that the commission still was working somewhat in the dark in approaching what he called its "very sad and very solemn duty" because it had not received the FBI or any other government report.

21 Asian Nations Seek Economic Cooperation

MANILA, the Philippines (AP)—A conference of 21 Asian nations called today for greater economic cooperation to speed development of their area.

They agreed to set up technical committees to make studies aimed at trade liberalization, regional industrial projects, establishment of an Asian development bank, lower ocean shipping rates and coordination of air transport.

In a unanimous resolution, the Economic Commission for Asia and Far East (ECAFE) expressed deep concern over difficulties encountered by most members packing hunting and fishing in achieving a desirable minimum rate of growth.

New Issue in Supreme Court On Appointees

Tribunal Asked if 2 Officials Held Positions Legally

MADISON (AP) — The appointment clash between Republicans in the State Senate and Democratic Gov. John W. Reynolds turned to a new issue Thursday when the State Supreme Court was asked to decide whether two state officials are entitled to the jobs they hold.

The court, which has been asked to referee the dispute, received the request in a stipulation filed by Atty. Gen. George Thompson and Leonard F. Schmitt of Merrill, special counsel in the case for Reynolds.

Checks Held Up

There was some question whether the court would act on the stipulation because the case already had been argued, and a decision had been expected later this month or early in January.

The officials involved are Howard Koop, head of the Department of Administration, and Frank Zeidler, director of the Department of Resource Development. Their paychecks have been held up by State Treasurer Dena Smith, on the recommendation of Thompson.

In the original petition filed in October, the attorney general said Koop and Zeidler were appointed when the Legislature was not in session and should be allowed to serve as interim appointees unless disapproved by the Senate. The nomination was rejected last month.

Reynolds reappointed Koop and Zeidler while the Legislature was still in session and this week appointed them for a third time.

Thompson said the most recent appointment raised the new question of whether they could legally receive interim appointments to the same post after their rejection by the Senate.

Chicago Paper Says Oswald May Have Tried to Kill Walker

CHICAGO (AP) — The Sun-Times said today that FBI agents were investigating the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, was the sniper who fired a rifle bullet at former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker in Dallas seven months ago.

The Sun-Times said it learned that federal authorities had no information linking Oswald, 24, with the sniper attack on Walker before Johnson ordered the FBI into the probe of Kennedy's assassination.

Shooting Man Dies in Auto Accident

ANTIGO (AP)—Herbert B. Antigo, 66, Antigo, was killed Thursday when a shotgun he was pulling from a duffel bag discharged and the blast struck him in the chest. He was unharmed by most members packing hunting and fishing in achieving a desirable minimum rate of growth.

Tax Cut Passage Seen But Civil Rights Stalled

Texas Gov. John Connally is embraced by his daughter, Sharon, 14, and son Mark, 11, as he arrived in Austin Thursday morning. Mrs. Connally, left, accompanied the governor on the plane trip from Dallas where he has been hospitalized since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy 13 days ago. Also on hand to greet the governor was John Connally III, 17, eldest son of Connally. (AP Wirephoto)

No Sign of Big Speedup In Congress

BY JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—It has been nine days since President Johnson appeared before Congress to urge the quickest possible action on civil rights and tax cut bills as a tribute to the late President Kennedy.

He followed that appeal with a wide-ranging series of conferences, statements and telephone calls, all part of the technique he made famous in six years as Senate majority leader.

Has the result been to improve prospects for the two bills or to advance the time when final passage may be expected?

The answer appears to be that there is not much change, certainly not the dramatic improvement looked for by some avid supporters of the measures.

Civil Rights Fight

The timetable for Senate Finance Committee action on the $11 billion tax cut has been speeded up slightly. But the House Rules Committee still plans no sessions on civil rights until next month.

Before Kennedy's assassination, Democratic congressional leaders were strongly confident both bills eventually would become law, the tax bill without too much trouble but civil rights only after a bitter fight. They say the outlook is about the same now.

No Action This Year

Senate leaders had given up hope for passage of the tax bill in their branch this year. This has proved realistic.

House leaders had been pushing for floor debate on civil rights in December. They redoubled their efforts under Johnson's prodding but the chances for any action before January now appear very slim.

Johnson has succeeded, however, in getting some more specific pledges of action from those in a position to hold up the bills. This may help prevent any further delays.

Some legislators believe that the new president's extensive congressional experience may enable him to shape a successful compromise viewed as essential to win passage of civil rights. They point out he played this role in the angry debates over the 1957 and 1960 bills on the subject.

Johnson Airs Policy Paris, Peking Of Strength, Justice Discuss Trade

Holds One-Hour Meeting With U. S. Security Council

BY FRANK CORNIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson presented the presidential Medal of Freedom today to 27 Americans and foreigners—all selected by John F. Kennedy as being "dedicated to the highest standards of human achievement."

All have distinguished themselves in public affairs, education, science, health, letters and the creative and performing arts.

The medal, a five-pointed star ringed by blue eagles and hanging from a gold and white ribbon, is the highest civilian award a chief executive may bestow in peacetime.

Kennedy Announced List

In presenting the awards today Johnson finished a task begun by his assassinated predecessor. It was on July 4 that Kennedy announced the list.

The varied and distinguished careers of those selected, amply demonstrate freedom's rich resource of men and women endowed with creative capacity and dedicated to the highest standards of human achievement. It is such as they, and those who march with them, whose talent enlarges the public vision of the dignity with which life can be graced and the fullness with which it can be lived.

Kennedy named 31 to receive the award — which previously had been received by only 24 persons directly from the president in the medal's 17 year history.

One of those named to receive the medal, but who will not be on hand, was Herbert H. Lehman, a New Deal architect and former U.S. senator and governor of New York.

Lehman, 85, died of a heart attack Thursday as he was preparing to leave for Washington to receive the honor.

Fresno Mayor Dies In Auto-Truck Crash

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Mayor Arthur Selland of Fresno, president of the National Conference of Mayors, was killed Thursday night in a truck-auto collision four miles south of here.

Also killed in the crash was Herbert Ferguson, 56, president of the Fresno Chamber of Commerce.

Selland, 57, was in his second term as mayor. He was elected last June to the conference post.

Highway patrolmen said Selland and Ferguson were returning home from a meeting in Los Angeles when the crash occurred.

France Not Planning Recognition, French Spokesman Asserts

PARIS (AP) — A gradual change in France's aloofness toward Red China is taking shape. It appears to be developing in the trade area.

"France definitely does not plan diplomatic recognition of Red China in the foreseeable future," one source said. "Trade ever, in getting some more specific pledges of action from those in a position to hold up the bills. This may help prevent any further delays."

Some legislators believe that the new president's extensive congressional experience may enable him to shape a successful compromise viewed as essential to win passage of civil rights. They point out he played this role in the angry debates over the 1957 and 1960 bills on the subject.

Grenade Explodes in Crowd in Viet Nam

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Eight Vietnamese, including a woman and child, were slightly wounded Thursday night when a grenade exploded in a crowd leaving an outdoor movie.

Officials believe the grenade was tossed by two Communist agents who sped away on a motorbike.

Party Leaders Silent

Goldwater Thinks He Continues To Hold Lead for GOP Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — Reappeared to be lifting a bit Thursday.

In his first interview since Kennedy's death, the Arizona conservative said he thinks he holds the lead in the race for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination.

But there are reports of a move to put former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the New Hampshire primary, and Goldwater says, "The whole country is in a position of flux."

Next March's New Hampshire presidential primary is the nation's first. The Granite State race traditionally has been a testing ground for presidential hopefuls.

A report that Nixon's name may be entered was printed in the Washington Star.

Through an aide, Nixon said he is not commenting on anything right now. Nixon said he will not be a candidate in the Goldwater camp.

Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York have been holding their fire since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy Nov. 22. For the Arizona senator, who has not declared himself a candidate, and for Rockefeller, who has, this has meant a halt to political speechmaking.

The curtain of silence that descended in the Goldwater camp.

47 Per Cent Hike In Waupaca Water Rate Authorized

Lagging Revenues Spark Action; Will Add About $17,425 Annually

WAUPACA — Wisconsin Public Service Commission Thursday authorized Waupaca to hike its water rates by about 47 per cent.

The commission ruling stemmed from a public hearing on the proposed water rate boost in Madison Sept. 29. No opposition to the hike was voiced at the hearing.

Lagging water department revenues gave rise to the move. The department earnings during 1962 represented about 1 per cent of the department assets. The commission normally allows net earnings to reach a maximum of 5.5 per cent of department assets.

Operating revenues during 1962 totaled $37,248. The rate hike is intended to add about $17,425 annually to the department's revenues.

Operating Cost
Operating expenses during the year were $19,097, depreciation expenses were $4,787 and taxes totaled $8,395 leaving the utility with a net operating balance of $4,968, according to Mrs. Dell Ward, city clerk-treasurer.

The water utility had a $93,552 debt at the time it made application to increase rates, primarily because of development of a third well recently. It borrowed the money from the city.

210 Students To Take Part In Musical
CLINTONVILLE — "Sir Nutcracker," a cantata and pantomime, will be presented by 210 fourth through sixth grade Longfellow School students in the junior high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Monday.

Miss Dorothy Heller, vocal music supervisor, will direct the production. String music will be presented for a half hour before the program begins.

The pupils will participate in the pantomime as well as sing in the chorus. The production calls for two scenes, Christmas Eve in a Bavarian home and The Land of the Sugar Plum Fairy. There are eight choruses.

Mrs. Richard Kuemper will be the accompanist. Assisting Miss Heller are the teachers, Mrs. Ray Below, Mrs. Harvey Borg, Mrs. Walter Hein, Mrs. Rex Michaelis, Mrs. Robert Pasch and Kenneth Felker.

$15,000 Debt
A state trust fund apportionment to the township from the Hilbert District, which amounted to $196 last year, has been cut to $148.

Tuition for vocational and handicapped children will cost the township $370 this year. The apportionment was $419 a year ago.

Included in the rate is a three-quarter mill levy for Joint Fire District No. 2 and a four mill rate for Joint Fire District No. 1 where a $15,000 debt is being paid off in 10 years.

A $39,393 cash balance in the town treasury and outside revenues enable the township to meet its local needs without a tax levy.

Professor to Speak At Forest Junction Church Anniversary

CWC to Play Double Round This Weekend

4 Teams Will Risk Their Perfect Records

CENTRAL WISCONSIN CONFERENCE		W. L.
Waupaca	2	0
Weyauwega	1	0
Bonduel	1	0

Manawa at Weyauwega.
Wautoma at Iola-Scandinavia.
Bonduel at Waupaca.
Amherst at Wittenberg.

Saturday Night's Games:
Weyauwega at Madison.
Iola-Scandia at Bonduel.
Waupaca at Amherst.
Wittenberg at Marion.

The four Central Wisconsin Conference basketball teams that have not tasted defeat so far in league play are faced with a double-barreled blast this weekend.

A full set of four games will be played Friday night and another four are on tap for Saturday.

Friday's encounters will have Manawa at Weyauwega, Wautoma at Iola-Scandinavia, Bonduel at Waupaca and Amherst at Wittenberg. On Saturday, Weyauwega will be at Wautoma, Iola-Scandinavia meets Bonduel, Waupaca visits Amherst and Wittenberg goes to Marion.

Waupaca and Wittenberg share the lead with two wins and no losses, while Amherst and Weyauwega each has a single victory. Waupaca is expected to get a stiff test against both Bonduel and Amherst.

Bonduel was tripped up by Wittenberg last week at the Maroons came through with a big last quarter. Amherst has a high scoring machine which rolled in 60 points against Marion.

Weyauwega is not expected to have trouble with Wautoma but the Indians could get a rough time from Manawa. The Wolves have one win and one loss and a host of lettermen who could jell in any game now.

Either Wautoma or IS will vacate the league cellar Friday night when they collide at Iola. Both clubs, along with Marion, have 0-2 records.

Waupaca Club Plans Hawaiian Yule Party

Parent-Teacher Conference at Chilton School

CHILTON — The annual parent-teacher conferences at St. Mary School were conducted Thursday in the church hall. Conferences previously were held in the classrooms, according to Sister Dorissa, principal. She explained that the new arrangement was working out well since the parents have an opportunity to meet all the teachers and meet individually with the teachers who deal with their children.

Classes were dismissed for the day. Sister Dorissa said the parent turnout was good. In addition to meeting with the teachers and being informed of their children's progress, parents had an opportunity to inspect the work their children have been doing.

Tigerton Village Board Adopts Trailer Law

TIGERTON — The village board last week adopted an ordinance establishing a $5 monthly trailer parking fee.

The move followed a public hearing on the measure. It will affect all trailers parked within the village. If the land on which the trailer is parked is owned by the trailer dweller, a real estate assessment will be made.

Airport Access Discussed With State Engineer

Take Matter to Plan Commission, Leroy Empey Says

Extension of W. College Avenue to provide an access road to the new Outagamie County Airport was discussed Wednesday at the Green Bay office of Leroy Empey, state district highway engineer.

Empey recommended the suggested extension of College Avenue be referred to the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission.

Outagamie County Highway Commissioner Clarence J. Brownson recommended a two-lane controlled access highway to the airport instead of a four-lane road recommended by an Appleton group.

Possible Overpass
In discussing a possible overpass at the intersection of College Avenue (State 125) and U.S. 41, Empey said such a structure was five to 10 years into the future unless the legislature appropriate more money to shove construction forward.

Brownson noted Spencer Road and County Trunk BB would suffice as access roads on a temporary basis.

Rudolph Spreeman, chairman of the Town of Greenville, where the airport is under construction, said his town probably will improve its portion of Spencer Road and Two Mile Road.

Main Entrance
Two Mile Road runs from County Trunk BB to U.S. 10 and will pass the main entrance to the airport.

Spencer Road in the Town of Grand Chute has already been improved.

Attending the meeting in addition to Brownson and Spreeman were:

Supv. Edward Peotter, chairman of the county highway committee; Supvs. Al Fischer, John Dietz and Art Lecker of the county airport committee.

Thieves Siphon Gasoline From Santa Claus' Car

Earlier this week he filled his gasoline tank (20 gallons) before he left Kaukauna for the Valley Fair.

While he greeted small children and listened to their requests for Christmas gifts, thieves siphoned his gasoline. He wonders how it was possible that, of all the parked cars on the lot, the thieves picked out the car of Santa Claus.

ors a verdict must be unanimous or it would result in a hung jury and a mistrial. But, he said, no juror should yield his reasonable doubt for the sake of agreeing.

After the verdict was read, Hughes asked the jury be polled on its finding on Rumlou. Each juror answered "yes" to the question "Was and is this your verdict?" when asked by Clerk of Courts William F. Osborne.

While the five men were tried together, the cases had to be considered separately by the jury and separate verdicts had to be brought back.

The jury's findings came almost five weeks after the case actually started with a coroner's inquest on Oct. 31. A coroner's jury took testimony that day and returned a finding of abuse on Nov. 12.

Select Witnesses
The circuit court jury, which was selected Monday afternoon, listened to more than two days of testimony from 15 witnesses before starting its deliberation.

Rumlou was accused of hitting Kropidowski in the stomach with his knee while he and four other aides were attempting to put restraints on the patient about 2:30 a.m. Kropidowski died from internal bleeding as the result of four tears ranging from six inches to a foot in length, in a membrane in the stomach area.

The man had become violent and had obtained a weight board from a venetian blind and was threatening the aides. The five aides held him down but denied overpowering Kropidowski in a hitting him.

Big Tax Rate Cut Due for Buchanan

Reduction Will Range From $4.40 to $37.70 Per $1,000

DARBOY—Town of Buchanan rate of year ago. The decrease property owners are in line for comes in the face of an appropriation tax rate cuts ranging from $4.40 to $37.70 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. The township has been asked to contribute $5,153 to the district compared with $4,553 last year.

Kaukauna District
A $12.35 tax rate cut is indicated for property owners in the township a year ago. $75.50, rated for property owners in the township will wind up with the low Kaukauna District. Their rate next year will be $41.25. It was $54.00 a year ago.

Accounting for the cut is a sharp reduction in the amount the township will be required to pay toward the school district $9,224 in 1963.

Top Rate
Paying the township's top tax rate, $53.90, will be residents of the Kimberly District. This is a rate of $2,679.243, the local $4.49 less than they paid last year will produce $17,275.

Local Needs
Local needs will require $73,000, the township's total budget, including school taxes, is $193,567. This represents a $12,094 decline from the current year's spending.

Anticipated revenues totaling $9,727 for sources other than the direct taxes will provide $60,727 for the next year. Major sources include $14,509 in income tax from the state, $13,030 in utility taxes in road aids. The township went into the year with a $17,932 cash balance.

The township's $27,134 share of county taxes is the major expenditure factor. Road work is expected to take another $15,000.

FBI's Hoover Most Familiar With Red Aims

Communism Still Described as Most Dangerous Element

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Probably no man in the government of the United States is more familiar with the infiltration which the Communists are carrying on in this country than J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. When he makes a speech, therefore, on this activity, it may be inferred that something is going on under the surface to which public attention needs to be drawn.

Mr. Hoover, in an address just delivered here in connection with an Achievement Award given to him by the Brotherhood of the Washington Hebrew Congregation, described the Communist operations inside this country, and said:

"We are at war with Communism and the sooner every red-blooded American realizes this the safer we will be.

"Here in the United States, the cause of international Communism is represented by the Communist Party, USA — a cunning and defiant subversive conspiracy which is financed, directed and controlled by the Kremlin. Its membership consists today of a hard core of revolutionary fanatics who are knowingly and eagerly subservient to the dictates of Moscow. The dupes, the dissidents and the faint of heart have long since been purged from the party's ranks."

Communist Efforts
Mr. Hoover urged Negro leaders in the United States to beware of the attempts by the Communists to infiltrate the movement for civil rights and warned them that the Soviets have tried and are still trying to take a hand behind the scenes in the civil rights movement. He added:

"Today, the Communists are engaged in a vigorous campaign to divide and weaken America from within. Foremost in this campaign are the party's efforts to exploit misunderstandings and capitalize upon areas of dissension and unrest wherever they exist. This is especially true in the intense civil rights movement, for America's 20 million Negroes and all others engaged in this struggle are a major target for Communist propaganda and subversion.

"It would be absurd to suggest that the aspirations of Negroes for equality are Communist inspired. This is demonstrably not true. But what is demonstrable is that some individuals and groups exploit the tension for purposes not confined to the equality of human rights under the Constitution of the United States. The crusade should not become a vehicle for political radicalism or organized violence.

"Devotion to race must not supersede devotion to established institutions.

Negro Leaders
"It would be useful if responsible Negro leaders themselves could make it clear to all who follow them that their interest is solely in racial equality.

"Legitimate civil rights organizations must remain constantly alert to attempts by the Communists to influence their actions, take over their programs and corrupt their ranks."

Mr. Hoover pointed out that "Communism feeds upon ignorance, prejudice and sickness of the mind and soul," and said that "the cause of Communism is well served by the hate-mongers, the lunatic fringe and other rabble who preach a doctrine of malice and intolerance toward their 'fellow man.'" He continued:

"These venomous fanatics, whether they are extremists of the left or the right, are carriers of a highly infectious distortion of the streets and the streets of hate, terror and intimidation. They have brought the bombs and ignited the flames that have killed decent Americans and even innocent children and destroyed churches and other temples of worship. They are a national disgrace.

"Invariably, these merchants of hate attempt to drape themselves in a cloak of patriotism. But their real objective is to profiteer and capitalize upon ignorance, prejudice and bigotry while destroying the very ideals which they claim to uphold."

Anti-Semitism
The FBI director said that the fires of anti-Semitism continue to burn with fierce intensity in many areas of the world. He declared:

"Despite Communist claims of improved conditions for Jews under the Khrushchev regime, the opposite actually is true. Additional forms of suppression have been introduced."

Mr. Hoover said that the Communists cannot reach the great majority of American youth. But he warned that there are others who, though they are genuinely convinced that they would not fall for the Communist bait, might never know they were "hooked" until they almost unwittingly have become dupes of the Communists.

The FBI tries to ferret out the Communists who infiltrate organizations of American citizens. While congressional committees can frequently expose Communist operations inside the United States, innocent American public opinion is able members of these organizations generally are unaware of just who are or who are not party members and just who are be-

Harvard Doctor Defines 'Care for Patient' Idea

Dr. H. L. Blumgart Stresses Importance Of Both Science and Art in Medicine

A physician whose concern for man's physical well-being has spanned more than four decades, last week discussed the science of medicine in its relation to the art of medicine and offered his views on patient-doctor relationships.

In the annual George W. Gay lecture on medical ethics at the Harvard Medical School, Dr. Herman L. Blumgart gave emphasis to his conviction that the science of medicine and the art of medicine are not mutually exclusive. Far from being mutually antagonistic, they complement each other; together they constitute a continuum in the service of mankind.

That the average life expectancy has increased from 63 to 71 years in the past 20 years is due to scientific progress and not to the dawn of greater compassion."

Dr. Blumgart, a professor of medicine, Emeritus, at Harvard devoted his remarks to expansion of an address made by one of his mentors at the Harvard Medical School in the mid-1920's. The title of the address was: "Caring for the Patient."

Increased Power
"Our increased knowledge confers increased power; increased power provides great dangers along with great benefits."

In medicine along with the blessings of progress, we possess heretofore unknown powers to manipulate the chemical composition of the intracellular and extracellular environment. Never has our responsibility in the use of such powerful agents been so great."

ing financed by the Communist partisans.

Mr. Hoover's speech is a significant pronouncement on a subject which has proven vexatious in the past and which probably will continue to be until the United States, innocent American public opinion is able to learn more about the way Communists conduct their clandestine operations.

(Copyright, 1963)

Yet, despite the broadened knowledge of the physician, Dr. Blumgart warned, "In caring for our patients we must ever try to be certain that the expected benefit outweighs the definite risk. . . . The attributes of compassion, judgment, and the balancing of risk and patient benefit in every decision, can, to a certain extent be verbalized in our teaching, but are best learned at the bedside. The task is increasingly difficult for as science progresses, the interests of the investigators become more and more narrow, while the skills of the clinicians must become wider and wider."

"All patients, must be convinced their physician is scientifically competent, and wise in his judgments and decisions. . . . (and) equally concerned with them as persons."

Personal Experience
When you sit down with a man to take down his present illness according to our history form, you are engaged in one of the most intensely personal experiences in clinical medicine — you are learning his habits, his fears, his hopes."

In taking a history of the patient's illness, Dr. Blumgart noted, two techniques are used. The physician must do more than cross-examine, he must also listen. "As some of our wisest clinicians have said: 'Listen to the patient's story, he is telling you the diagnosis.'"

The two techniques are not wholly separate," Dr. Blumgart said, "they frequently overlap, and merge: always they supplement each other in our understanding of the disease and of the person."

The importance of appreciating the patient's feelings without becoming engulfed by them, was stressed by Dr. Blumgart. Appreciation of another's feelings and his problems is quite different from joining in them and is different from ignoring them.

Dr. Blumgart also capitalized other aspects of medicine:

The Psychosomatic
Of psychosomatic medicine he said, "The modern emphasis on psychosomatic medicine is encouraging as to intent. But insofar as it denotes something new and apart from medicine, it is a retrogressive concept. For all of medicine is psychosomatic. Just as there can be no disease without a patient, there can be no organic disease without emotional reverberations. Nor can there be emotional upheavals without bodily representation. The extent to which each of these two factors is operative, and an estimate of their relative importance in each patient is essential to accurate diagnosis and successful therapy."

"In caring for the patient, one should carefully weigh one's remarks. The word 'doctor' is derived from the Greek word 'teacher'. Some few patients resist explanation of the nature of their illness. For most, however, knowledge of the nature of the illness and its expected course explained in kindly optimistic terms is comforting. There is no condition so complex that it cannot be explained in simple, intelligible terms. To clothe the illness in unintelligible terminology will only increase the patient's anxiety."

The Dying Patient
"Of the many questions regarding what to say and what not to say to one's patient, none is more difficult than what to inform the dying patient or the patient with an incurable malignancy. I do not believe there is an easy single or uniform reply. But certain considerations afford valuable guidance. The underlying common denominator is that we conduct ourselves to support the specific needs and strengthen the particular defenses of the particular patient for whom we have accepted responsibility."

Mr. Johnson's Federal Budget

One of the most intricate and certainly most vital tasks which President Johnson has had thrust upon him so suddenly is preparation of the federal budget for the next fiscal year, due to be presented to Congress in January.

Obviously considerable detailed work had already been accomplished, but it remains for the President to set his own goals and standards and finally to review and approve.

President Johnson has made a good impression with his first pronouncements on this subject. He told top officials he will hold their budgets to the "barest minimum consistent with the efficient discharge of our domestic and foreign responsibilities," and he asked them for a report on what major actions they had taken in the past year to cut costs. He followed this up with conferences with major departments of the government in which he repeated his desires for economy.

Unfortunately an erroneous impression of what the new President might accomplish came out of a meeting he held with the executive council of the National Governors Conference, with whom he also discussed budget matters. Governor Love of Colorado hit the headlines with a prediction that President Johnson may be able to cut $3 billions from the budget which Mr. Kennedy would have proposed.

But the White House quickly corrected this impression. A statement said Mr. Johnson is attempting to arrive at a final spending budget between $98 billions and $103 billions. They said Mr. Kennedy had already cut substantially the spending requests of a number of agencies and was still at this task when he was killed. The budget spending for the current fiscal year is expected to total $98 billions, so the best Mr. Johnson hopes to do is keep spending at the current level.

A new president taking office so suddenly cannot expect to reverse the spending trend in Washington overnight. He is already committed to follow up many of the programs Mr. Kennedy submitted to Congress. And the federal bureaucracy has grown so huge and so complex that there is real doubt that serious reductions in services can ever be accomplished.

The best we can hope for is that Congress will not approve broad new spending programs. And we will not be able to evaluate Mr. Johnson's 1965 budget realistically until we also get a look at the legislative program he submits to Congress next year.

Right of Privacy Upheld

It is good to report that the State Department of Taxation has changed its mind about an administrative procedure that contained a serious risk of repealing by indirection the privacy of personal income tax returns filed with the state government as guaranteed by a legislative enactment about 10 years ago.

The department some months earlier had concluded that it would be a convenience if not a benefit to municipal officials to submit to them the names of the filing taxpayers in their local jurisdictions, with the amounts of tax liability, to permit them to audit the accuracy of the revenue apportionment to localities if they chose to do so.

There were immediate protests. Circulation of such lists around the city halls and town halls of Wisconsin would be the kind of publicity that the state law had been intended to prevent. Local officials already have the right, and no one has challenged it, to check such matters at the state and district offices of the tax department, if they have reason to believe that they can make corrections for gain to their local treasuries. Most of them already do precisely that, at intervals.

It is apparent that the tax administrators were acting in good faith, for they rescinded the practice when objections were filed and a bill to prohibit such distribution was introduced into the state legislature.

We suppose that they did not appreciate the casual manner in which such papers could be used in the localities, and did not anticipate the objections that would arise.

It is important to note, meanwhile, that there has been no significant demand lately for the open file system of income tax administration at Madison. The only pressure remaining comes from those who are interested in snooping, rather than in law enforcement. There are so many intrinsically private revelations in many income tax assessment forms that no reasonable person will support the claim that the man on the street should have the right to demand an examination of his neighbor's affairs out of sheer curiosity. There are protections enough in the law as it stands. Every public official has access to these files. And the income tax division now has such a huge staff of auditors and inspectors and examiners and what not that there is probably a greater assurance of compliance today than at any previous time.

No Labels Needed

There is a need at this time for clarity. Several Congressmen have decried the national sense of guilt that has followed the dreadful events in Dallas. Efforts to fix the blame have at various times ranged all the way from insistence that it was a Communist conspiracy controlled by the Kremlin to charges that right wingers used a demented Marxist for their own nefarious purposes. In the middle has come condemnations of conservatives, liberals, Texans, segregationists and dozens of others with easily applied labels.

We do not yet know—and we may never know—exactly what led to the crime or the one that followed. But we can be quite sure about some of the things that did not cause it.

Conservatives who oppose the extension of federal control are not to blame any more than are liberals who favor peaceful coexistence. It wasn't the wheat deal and it wasn't the civil rights bill. It was not collectivist textbooks or Vaughn Meader.

We cannot suddenly try to merge all our points of views and opinions. We do not even have to listen to other points of view—but we refrain at our personal and our national peril. In recent months the spotlight has been upon the efforts of the right wing to shut up the opposition but it has not been always thus. We have seen members of pro United Nations groups who were as ill-mannered and caustic as members of the John Birch society. The refusal to listen to other opinions all too often leads to the effort to silence other opinion—by any means.

Our love and concern for our country has too often taken on a negative view and attempted to find a single solution to the ever present problems that we face. Being against communism is not a good substitute for being for the marvels of democracy any more than being against pornography develops a love of good books. We must have something to live for, not merely against.

In the world today we still need force to maintain not only justice but peace itself. Perhaps this is a paradox of life. But the appeal to violence for the various fanaticisms of mankind is everlastingly dangerous. A marvelous book entitled Extraordinary Popular Decisions and the Madness of Crowds presents literally hundreds of fanaticisms and chronicles the history of such episodes all too well. In our own time, fanaticism pushed by violence has led to the bombings of churches and synagogues, the Nazi concentration camps, the Soviet purges and the assassination of Medgar Evers.

President Johnson several years ago criticized the demand for political philosophies casually labeled. "I am not able—nor even the least interested in trying—to define my political philosophy by the choice of a one-word or two-word label. . . . At the heart of my own beliefs is a rebellion against this very process of classifying, labeling, and filing Americans under headings: regional, economic, occupational, religious, racial, or otherwise. . . . Our political philosophies, I have found, are the sum of our life's experience. God made no man so simple or his life so sterile that such experience can be summarized in an adjective."

This is the time, remarkably given us perhaps, to review our individual understandings of our nation and what we believe. We can start in the right direction by not attaching simple labels of blame to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Dec. 5, 1863.

The Madison Journal has taken special pains "in season and out of season" to decry the Crescent as "disloyal." It possesses a particular faculty for sneering at all who differ with it in sentiment. Perhaps the lack of intellectual accounts for this failing on the part of the "State Organ."

The Journal has been vociferous, untiring and indignant in its attempts to force the draft. All right! But what is the result? The Editor of the Journal has been "grafted" into the Army of the Lord! Has he reported for duty?

Oh, no! He can scoff and sneer at all Constitutional men; he can scout at those who by deeds seek to save this Government. But he can't leave the sink-holes of iniquity at Madison; he can't give up his chances at making further gains out of the people of Wisconsin.

What to him is the fact that President Johnson is seeking a $3.4 billion "compromise" to settle the long and stormy foreign aid budget battle.

That total is the same as 190. Winning individual game honors in the same league were E. Luccasen and M. Johnson, both rolling a 203 game.

William Meltz, Twelve Corners, had the thrill of a lifetime when he held his first perfect hand, a four-jack overt, in a skat tournament. It was Meltz first perfect opener in all his 35 years of playing the card game. He was playing with Frank Altman, Lyle Riehl, and Harold Meltz when he was dealt the hand in the sixth game of the tournament.

Appleton women elected heads of their respective church ladies aid societies included Mrs. Albert Roehl, Trinity Lutheran Church, Mrs. Joseph Bayer, St. Paul Lutheran Church, and Mrs. Gust Radtke, First English Lutheran Church.

10 YEARS AGO

Friday, Dec. 4, 1953.
President Dwight Eisenhower arrived in Bermuda that day for the start of the Big Three conference with Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain and French Premier Joseph Laniel.

The Kaukauna chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber-shop Quartet Singing in America received its official charter the previous night at a concert in the Civic Auditorium. William Reich, president of the Appleton chapter, presented the charter to Kaukauna President Rinert Wenzel.

Seven members of the Army Reserve received 10-year service medals at the Appleton Reserve Armory the previous night. They were Capt. Harold Vandenberg and Capt. Charles J. St. Pierre, both of Neenah; Maj. Robert Greenwalt, Lt. Col. Joseph A. Maldari, Capt. Everett C. Semrad and Capt. Archie Johnson, all of Appleton, and Maj. W. C. Johnson, Green Bay.

Mrs. Hubert Cotton was re-elected oracle and Mrs. Della Sweet vice oracle of the Royal Neighbors. Other officers included Mrs. Fred Clark, past oracle, Mrs. Mary Walker, chancellor, Mrs. Myrna Smith, marshal, Mrs. Lena Struck, inner sentinel, and Mrs. E. S. Zeh, outer sentinel.

The President personally urged this "compromise" in a 20-minute telephone discussion with Representative Otto Passman, D-La., chairman of the House Appropriations Subcommittee in charge of the foreign aid budget.

Outcome of this backstage dickering is conjectural.

Passman, long-time militant foe of large-scale foreign aid spending, has been talking of slashing this year's appropriation to $2.6 billion. That would be $800 million less than the present foreign aid spending level — which the President is proposing as a "compromise" for the new budget.

It would also be $1 billion less than the authorization bills voted by the House and Senate — $3.459 billion by the House; $3.699 billion by the Senate.

The conference committees of the two chambers are expected to split their differences at $3.599 billion. The late President Kennedy insisted that $4.5 billion was "essential."

The proposed $3.4 billion "compromise" is largely the work of Speaker John McCormack, Mass.

He undertook to put over this compromise after Johnson, at a strategy meeting with Democratic congressional leaders, expressed willingness to "come to reasonable terms" on the long-stalled foreign aid budget. He indicated that he considered $3.25 to $3.4 billion "reasonable."

McCormack lost no time in huddling with Passman — after advising the President of this intention.

BASIS OF THE "COMPRO- OVER" — President Johnson is arrived at the $3.4 billion foreign aid spending "compromise" as follows:

Last year Congress voted $3.9 billion in actual foreign aid funds. But as of June 30, 1963, the end of that fiscal year, the foreign aid agency had obligated only $3.4 billion. In addition, $123 million was turned back to the Treasury.

Regarding the approximately $400 million remaining unspent, McCormack proposed two alternatives:

(1) They be re-obligated for expenditure in the current fiscal year — plus $3 billion in new funds for an overall total of $3.4 billion; or (2) an entirely new foreign aid spending bill of $3.4 billion.

When Passman evinced willingness to consider these propositions, McCormack immediately got the President on the phone to talk to Passman.

Like McCormack, the President stressed the urgent need to break the protracted logjam on this issue in order to make clear to the world that the new administration firmly intends to meet all foreign commitments.

Definitely impressed by this plea, Passman promised "to do my best."

"I won't forget it, Otto," Johnson earnestly assured him. "This will mean a great deal to me, and I want you to know that I know it."

A number of hazardous hurdles still face this backstage "compromise."

Even if approved by the House, it faces very uncertain prospects in the Senate, where a bipartisan group led by Senator Wayne Morse, D-Ore., last month slashed some $500 million from the $4.2 billion foreign aid authorization bill recommended by the Foreign Relations Committee.

Morse and his bloc are bent on cutting foreign aid spending this fiscal year to $3 billion or less. So they are likely to strenuously oppose the new administration's unannounced $3.4 billion "compromise."

To the Morse group it will be no "compromise" at all as they will contend it would merely continue the present level of foreign aid spending.

BEHIND THE CHANGE - OVER — President Johnson is asking for headaches if he names Ambassador - to - Finland Carl Rowan as White House press secretary.

The Negro one-time Minneapolis newsmen is far from popular with Washington correspondents. As No. 2 man in the State Department's press section in the first year of the Kennedy administration, Rowan repeatedly got into hot water with working reporters.

They found him inclined toward churlishness, high-handedness and provocatively aggressive. In the White House, where the pressure is infinitely greater, it's very questionable whether Rowan, whom the State Department "kicked upstairs" to get him out of the way, could stand the heat.

President Johnson's address to the joint session of Congress was largely the work of three men — Senate Democratic Whip Hubert Humphrey, Minn., Theodore Sorensen, special counsel of the late President Kennedy and his chief speech writer, and Abe Fortas, undersecretary of interior in the Truman administration and now a law partner of former Judge Thurman Arnold and Federal Communications Commission Chairman Paul Porter.

Fortas is also attorney for Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, former secretary of the Senate majority who is under widely-publicized investigation. Like Baker, Fortas has long been a close friend of the President.

At 9:00 p.m., the night before the address, it was still only in draft form.

At that time, when Humphrey and Fortas arrived at the White House, the President had before him the draft of a speech by Sorensen, and several partial drafts and memorandums from others. The group worked until 2:00 a.m. before the address was completed to Johnson's satisfaction.

In the morning, he arose early especially to practice his delivery of the speech.

Upholding of Billboard Veto Is Conservation Victory in Broad Sense

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — It was a strenuous and bitter fight, but the legislature has managed to preserve the emerging interstate highway system of Wisconsin from the encroachments of the advertising billboard business.

The issue was the demand of merchants and others in Racine and Kenosha Counties to retain the billboard privileges they had on former U. S. Highway 41 on the route of the reconstructed highway which is now a part of the interstate system. Gov. Reynolds vetoed the bill approved by both houses of the legislature earlier this year, and recently the assembly sustained his veto after the state senate had voted to defy it.

One battle does not win the campaign, in politics or in war, but the incident is enormously encouraging, nevertheless, to those increasing numbers of persons who have a reasonably broad concept of that perennially popular word in Wisconsin — conservation.

BROADER MEANING

Typically in the past, in the legislature and in the body politic, the word was confined to questions involving deer and trout and ducks and pheasants.

There is reflected in the conservationists' victory in the billboard fight the first important recognition by the legislature that the issue is a broader one. In turn, the lawmakers are showing an awareness of the changing public definition of the challenge of outdoors resources conservation.

The evidence of that change is everywhere at hand. The huge land buying program under the new Outdoors Recreation Act, as an example, is only incidentally concerned with fish and game. The primary objective is the preservation of wilderness and open space for a broader spectrum of public recreational activity,

A recent report of the Conservation Department observes parenthetically that the time may come when game watching will be as important in recreation, in terms of numbers of interested persons, as game shooting.

That will be a hard dose for the old-time "sportsman" to swallow. But the signs cannot be mistaken. One of them is there for everybody to read in the throngs of persons who visit the Horicon area each year merely to observe the wild geese, not to shoot them. In some sections the "hunters" of deer with camera are nearly as numerous as those who pursue them with rifles. As the late Prof. Leopold put it so well, there are thousands of persons who delight in the sound of the loon and the sight of the pasque flower, and their interests must be recognized, as their tax dollars are commandeered for the resources conservation effort.

BUSINESS REASON

A good deal of the public energies of Wisconsin are devoted to the development and retention of the immense summer tourist patronage.

Study after study has shown, so positively as to leave no room for reasonable doubt, that the tourist business is more basically related to the beauties of the outdoors than to muskellunge or partridge or the other ostensible appeals that once were promoted so heavily, although these retain a considerable importance.

There is something peculiarly wrong in a system that will invest hundreds of thousands of dollars per mile of new through-way, and then permit the natural landscape to be obliterated from the view of the travellers by a clutter of commercial billboards. The difficulty has been that those tourists are not represented in the legislative lobby. That the law-makers have remembered them and their interests, nevertheless, is a tribute to their understanding.

Strictly Personal

Paper Prosperity Is Largely Illusory Today

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

There is a kind of magic in the naming of a large sum of money, a sort of incantation that hypnotizes people into taking the name for the fact — the way a child uses "a million dollars" to express some infinite and unattainable sum at the rainbow's end.

I thought of this while overhearing two women in the booth next to me at lunch, who were talking about a television comedienne recently signed to a 10-year contract for $1,000,000 by a network. The women seemed to feel that this was a staggering sum to receive.

It amounts to $100,000 a year. If the performer receives this as straight salary (and not as capital gain), she will pay about half of it in federal taxes, off the top.

Another 10 percent will go to her agent. Her lawyers will receive a substantial cut. Her personal manager must be paid out of this, as well as her publicity man. And, in most cases, comedians pay the writers of their material out of their own income.

Out of the half remaining, then, she is lucky if she retains a half of that. Her personal entourage will include a maid, a hairdresser, a wardrobe supervisor. Her living expenses, simply to maintain theatrical standards in New York, will be crushing.

At the end of the year, unless she is able to supplement her income through personal appearances or other marginal activities, she is quite likely to be broke. For she is being paid in modern "paper" money, that sounds big in print, but lacks the real substance out of which profits are made.

We are living in a paper economy. Salaries sound high, but they are illusory, and still based on standards we dimly remember from a quarter-century ago. The "bite" taken out by taxes, heightened living expenses, and the shrinking power of the dollar, makes such figures almost meaningless, and always misleading.

A man making $200 a week 20 years ago would have been able to accumulate more property and more savings than the comedienne making $1,000,000 for the next 10 years. Money has only relative value, and no absolute value — it is relative not only to time and place, but also to the needs and activities of the persons who earn it.

A country doctor earning even $8,000 a year today may be relatively better off than an actress making 10 times as much in Hollywood or Manhattan. Absolute figures in money have as little significance as absolute temperatures — for 20 below zero in dry skiing country, as everyone knows, is not nearly as cold as 15 above zero in the damp and windy city. But the magic of the big number moves us all.

Potomac Fever — by Fletcher Knebel

President Johnson is acting like he'd prefer carrying a much heavier load in '64 — say New York and Illinois instead of Alabama and Georgia.

The Supreme Court okays state right-to-work laws. All right, but you'd think in the high state of our civilization, somebody would be progressive enough to pass a few right-to-loaf laws.

Adlai Stevenson again calls for a joint U.S.-Russian Moon shot. New Moon motto of the astronauts: "Coming in on a left-wing and a prayer."

Republicans are searching for their ideal candidate: A forceful, decisive leader with a radiant personality — and a firm tread in marking time.

A Lovelier You

By Mary Sue Miller

Dazzling Top Note

For evening wear, tuck a the back swirl of a temple wave. Use a jeweled buckle to secure an enormous ribbon bow to a French twist.

The newly polished evening coiffures and bejeweled ornaments are perfect complements. Unless the hair is smooth and gleaming, any sort of adornment loses point. Even the Kohinoor would have got lost in last year's jungled locks. And the locks might have appeared more of an underbrush than, in fact, they were.

But, although the hair has the finish of satin, an ornament must be chosen and placed with a deft hand. It might otherwise break the line of your coiffure, just when you hope for accent.

Today's Etiquette

YOUNG PEOPLE'S PARTY

Dear Louise Our 12-year-old son will be having a party of girls and boys at our house during the holidays as we feel that it will be good experience. I will do most of the planning, but I don't know where to start. What do you suggest for a game or amusement? Is it up to us to see that everyone gets home afterwards, or should the parents come for them?

Louise Davis Answers

When inviting the young people, I suggest that you also contact their mothers to let them know just when the party starts and when it will end. It is up to the parents to see that the children are delivered and called for. It would be a good idea to let them know who will be coming so that some may have the opportunity in advance to arrange car pools. As the party breaks up, it would be wise to double check by asking each boy and girl if their parents have made arrangements to call in for them.

selection is, of course, color. Diamond - white stones are generally the most flexible. Colored stones need careful keying to the color of your hair, as well as to your costume. For brilliance, stone and hair colorings must form a striking contrast. There's no sparkle, for instance, in dark stones against a backdrop of dark hair.

As a final thought, make a necklace or earbobs to minor roles. A headful of glitter blinds the eyes to a lovely's own radiance.

Flattering Colors

In fashion, nothing makes you lovelier than color. It can enhance your skin, hair, eyes and to the figure; it can express your individuality and style. Great powder for. To learn how to put them to work for you, read our coming so that some may have the opportunity in advance to arrange car pools. As the party breaks up, it would be wise to double check by asking each boy and girl if their parents have made arrangements to call in for them.

The couple has one son, Dr. Wilmer Jung, Neenah. They also have three grandchildren.

Create Package Wrap For Door

You can create a "happy holiday" front door with a little imagination and weatherproof oil cloth. For example, cross wide red bands against a white door to give a "gift package" effect. Or shape self-adhering oil cloth into bows, and decorate them with springs of holly.

Remember to wash the door with hot soap or detergent suds before you decorate, as not even the most artistic design can enhance a dingy surface. Wash the door again later to erase all traces of your holiday decoration.

New Footwarmer A Welcome Gift

Two unusual electric pads forecast heat waves for winter nights.

One is a quilted "footwarmer" which can be spread across the foot of the bed, or higher for relaxing warmth under back and shoulders. It's machine-washable, of course.

A smaller oblong heating pad can be applied to the exact spot of pain. This comes with two removable covers — one to launder while the other is in use.

That is, there has no way for South to know about the trump as he played the hand. That's because he made the habitual play of leading the queen of spades for his first trump finesse.

Since South had no partner to inform it is not necessary for him to lead the queen of spades. Instead, he should lead the ten of spades.

When West has to play the king of spades on declarer's ten, it is possible for South to work out what is going on in trumps. West's king is almost surely singleton, and declarer must win with the ace and lead trumps twice through East's 9-8-6 to avoid the loss of a trump trick.

Increase Life of Paint Brush

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q: I am a new home owner and recently had to get some paint brushes. I was startled at the price of good brushes. What care will prolong their usefulness?

A: Dip the paint brush no more than half the bristle length into the paint (one-third is even better); dipping the brush deep into paint causes a paint accumulation near the metal ferrule which harms the brush. To wipe off excess paint, don't scrape the brush against the container; tap the bristles gently against the inside of the can. And, of course, clean the bristles thoroughly immediately after you finish using the brush, before storing away; hang the brush away or lay it flat; never stand it on the bristles.

Q: Our copper gutters and downspouts have been on the house for several years and are beginning to look too dark, spoiling the appearance of the house. How can we paint the copper? The copper is unpainted now.

A: The more the copper surface is tarnished, the better the paint will adhere to it. Use a lead paint of good quality on the copper. A zinc paint will damage the copper because of chemical reaction between the two metals. Apply the lead paint in thin, even coats, allowing ample time between for thorough drying. Before painting, be sure to remove all surface dust, soil, soot, etc., with a wire brush or steel wool.

Q: We have just bought an old house with a small garage in the rear. There is no driveway at present; just hard-packed earth. We plan to have the garage enlarged and a driveway put down. Is there any way to prevent erosion of the concrete surface because of the salt frequently used to melt ice and snow?

A: What is known as "air-entrained" concrete will give you resistance to salt and other ice-melting chemicals. It is also highly resistant to frost and prolonged cold stretches. The process used in manufacture entraps countless tiny air bubbles in the concrete, making it not only resistant to ice-removing salts but to the usually damaging effects of freezing. It costs the same as conventional concrete. The local office of the Portland Cement Association or their headquarters at 33 West Grand Ave., Chicago 10, will be glad to supply descriptive literature or request, as well as detailed instructions on proper laying of driveways, etc.

Build Portable Slide For Wee Child's Gift

For a wonderful, long-lasting Christmas gift that is practically indestructible, the pre-school or first or second grade child will enjoy a simple slide.

Dad can make a framework of 1 by 2-inch lumber 5 feet long and 15 inches wide, with cross-braces at 20-inch intervals. To this fasten with braid a piece of smooth, splinter-free tempered pressed hardboard, counter-sinking the heads.

Round the corners and bevel the exposed edges with a file or sandblock.

For the smallest youngsters, prop one end of the slide against a bottom step. Wax the surface to make it slick. Older children will be more daring; they can prop the slide on a sofa. When not in use, store the slide in a closet.

Society Sponsoring Family Yule Fete

ROYALTON—St. Bridget Altar Society will sponsor a family Christmas party Sunday for all members of the congregation.

In charge of the party and potluck dinner are Mrs. Nanheem Mukarma, Mrs. Bernard Faskell, Mrs. Leo Burzynski, Mrs. Clair Fleese, Mrs. Severian Hayes and Miss Margaret Hayes.

the top edge and a loop between the top corners. Glue sequins to symbolize the pears and a bird sequin as the partridge.

For your copy of Fifteen Gifts You Can Make, write to Patricia Scott in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20c in coin to cover printing and handling costs. The subjects for this fascinating booklet were selected from among Miss Scott's most popular columns. Miss Scott is always glad to hear from her readers, and whenever possible will use their questions in her column, but because of the great volume of mail received daily, she cannot answer individual letters.
